Section 1
Purpose of the Act; scope

(1) This Act shall serve to control and restrict the influx of foreigners into the Federal Republic of Germany. It shall enable and organise immigration with due regard to the capacities for admission and integration and the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany in terms of its economy and labour market. 3. who, by virtue of treaties on diplomatic and consular communication and on the activities of international organisations and institutions, are exempt from immigration restrictions, from the obligation to notify the foreigners authority of their stay and from the requirement for a residence title, and when reciprocity applies, insofar as this may constitute a prerequisite for such exemptions.

Section 2

(2) Economic activity is self-employment and employment within the meaning of Section 7 of Book Four of the Social Code.

Living space which does not comply with the statutory provisions for Germans with regard to condition and occupancy shall not be adequate for foreigners. Children up to the age of two shall not be included in calculation of the sufficient living space for the accommodation of families.

(5) Schengen states are states in which the following legal acts apply in their entirety:

(6) Temporary protection within the meaning of this Act is the granting of residence in application of Council Directive 2001/55/EC of 20 July 2001 on minimum standards for the granting of temporary protection in the case of the mass influx of displaced foreigners and on measures to promote the balanced distribution of the burdens associated with the admission of these persons and the consequences of such admission among the member states (Official EC Journal no. L 212, p. 12).

(9) Basic knowledge of the German language shall be deemed to correspond to Level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (Recommendation no. R(98)6 of 17 March 1998 of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe to Member States concerning the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages – CEFR).

(10) Elementary knowledge of the German language shall be deemed to correspond to Level A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

(11) Sufficient command of the German language shall be deemed to correspond to Level B1 of Common European Framework for Languages.

(12) A foreigner shall be deemed to have a strong command of the German language if his or her knowledge of the language corresponds to Level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

(13) A foreigner shall be deemed to have international protection status if he or she enjoys international protection within the meaning of

1. Council Directive 2004/83/EC of 29 April 2004 on minimum standards for the qualification and status of third-country nationals or stateless persons as refugees or as persons who otherwise need international protection and the content of the protection granted (Official Journal EU no. L 304, p. 12), or of

2. Directive 2011/95/EU of the European Parliament and the Council of 13 December 2011 on standards for the qualification of third-country nationals or stateless persons as beneficiaries of international protection, for a uniform status for refugees or for persons eligible for subsidiary protection, and for the content of the protection granted (Official Journal no. L 337 of 20 December 2011, p. 9).

(14) The following can constitute concrete evidence within the meaning of Section 62 (3), sentence 1, no. 5:

2. the foreigner deceives the authorities regarding his or her identity, in particular by suppressing or destroying identity or travel documents or claiming a false identity,

3. the foreigner has refused or failed to cooperate in the establishment of his or her identity and it can be concluded from the particular circumstances of the case that he or she intends actively to prevent his or her deportation,

4. the foreigner has paid considerable sums of money to a third person so that this person will engage in activities pursuant to Section 96 to secure the foreigner’s unlawful entry, and these sums are so relevant given the foreigner’s circumstances that it can be concluded that he or she will prevent deportation to ensure that the expenses were not in vain,

5. the foreigner has expressly declared that he or she intends to evade deportation or

6. the foreigner has made other concrete preparations of comparable significance to evade imminent deportation and these preparations cannot be thwarted by using direct force.

(15) Insofar as Article 28 of Regulation (EU) no. 604/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 establishing the criteria and mechanisms for ascertaining which member state is responsible for examining an application for international protection lodged in one of the member states by a third-country national or a stateless person (Official Journal no. L 180 of 29.6.2013, p. 31) concerning detention for the purpose of transfer is relevant, the evidence referred to in subsection 14 shall be regarded mutatis mutandis as objective criteria for presuming that there is a risk of the foreigner absconding within the meaning of Article 2 letter (n) of Regulation (EU) no. 604/2013. Such evidence may also exist where the foreigner has left a member state prior to the conclusion of proceedings being conducted there to determine competence or to examine an application for international protection and the circumstances of the determination made in the federal territory provide concrete indications that he or she does not intend to visit the competent member state in the foreseeable future. The provisions of the Act on Proceedings in Family Matters and in Matters of Non-Contentious Jurisdiction shall apply mutatis mutandis to the procedure for ordering detention for the purposes of transfer in accordance with Regulation (EU) no. 604/2013, unless the procedure is regulated in another manner under Regulation (EU) no. 604/2013.

Chapter 2
Entry into and residence in the federal territory

Part 1
General

Section 3
Passport obligation

(1) Foreigners may only enter or stay in the federal territory if they are in possession of a recognised and valid passport or passport substitute, unless they are exempt from the passport obligation by virtue of a statutory instrument. For the purpose of residence in the federal territory, possession of a substitute identity document shall also suffice in order to meet the passport obligation (Section 48 (2)).

(2) In justified individual cases, the Federal Ministry of the Interior or a body designated by the Federal Ministry of the Interior may permit exemptions from the passport obligation before the foreigner enters the federal territory for the purpose of crossing the border, and for a subsequent stay of up to six months.

Section 4
Residence title requirement

(1) In order to enter and stay in the federal territory, foreigners shall require a residence title, in the absence of any provisions to the contrary in the law of the European Union or a statutory instrument and except where a right of residence exists as a result of the agreement of 12 September 1963 establishing an association between the European Economic Community and Turkey (Federal Law Gazette 1964 II p. 509) (EEC/Turkey Association Agreement). The residence titles shall be granted in the form of

1. a visa pursuant to Section 6 (1), no. 1 and (3),
2. a temporary residence permit (Section 7),
2a. an EU Blue Card (Section 19a),
3. a permanent settlement permit (Section 9) or
4. an EU long-term residence permit (Section 9a).

The legal provisions governing temporary residence permits shall also apply to the EU Blue Card in the absence of any law or statutory instrument to the contrary.

(2) A residence title shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity insofar as this is laid down in this Act or the residence title expressly permits pursuit of an economic activity. Every residence title must indicate whether the pursuit of an economic activity is permitted. A foreigner who is not in possession of a temporary residence permit for the purpose of employment can only be permitted to take up employment if the Federal Employment Agency has granted its approval or a statutory instrument stipulates that taking up the employment concerned is permissible without the approval of the Federal Employment Agency. Any restrictions imposed by the Federal Employment Agency in granting approval are to be specified in the residence title.

(3) Foreigners may only pursue an economic activity if the residence title so allows. Foreigners may only be employed or commissioned to perform other paid work or services if they possess such a residence title. This restriction shall not apply if the foreigner is permitted by virtue of an intergovernmental agreement, a law or a statutory instrument to pursue an economic activity without requiring due authorisation via a residence title. Anyone employing a foreigner or commissioning a foreigner on a sustained basis to perform paid work or services for gain in the federal territory must ascertain whether the conditions pursuant to sentence 2 or sentence 3 apply. Anyone employing a foreigner in the federal territory must keep a copy of the residence title or of the certificate confirming permission to remain pending the asylum decision (Aufenthaltsgestattung) or confirming suspension of deportation, in electronic or paper form for the duration of the employment.

(4) (repealed)

(5) A foreigner who possesses a right of residence in accordance with the EEC/Turkey Association Agreement is obliged to furnish evidence of the existence of said right of residence through the possession of a temporary residence permit, unless he or she is in possession of a permanent settlement permit or an EU long-term residence permit. Said residence permit shall be issued on application.

Section 5
General preconditions for the granting of a residence title

(1) The granting of a residence title shall generally presuppose

1. that the foreigner’s subsistence is secure;
   1a. that the foreigner’s identity is established, as is his or her nationality, if he or she is not entitled to return to another state,
2. that there is no public interest in expelling the foreigner,
3. that, if the foreigner has no entitlement to a residence title, the foreigner’s residence does not compromise or jeopardise the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany for any other reason and
4. that the passport obligation pursuant to Section 3 is met.

(2) The granting of a temporary residence permit, a permanent settlement permit or an EU long-term residence permit further presupposes that the foreigner

1. has entered the country with the necessary visa and
2. has already furnished the key information required for granting the title in his or her visa application.

These requirements may be waived if the prerequisites qualifying a foreigner for the granting of a residence title are met or if special circumstances relating to the individual case concerned render a subsequent visa application procedure unreasonable.

(3) Application of subsections 1 and 2 shall be waived in the cases of issuance of a residence title pursuant to Section 24 or Section 25 (1) to (3); application of subsection 1, nos. 1 to 2 and 4 and subsection 2 shall be waived in the cases of Section 25 (4a) and (4b). Application of subsections 1 and 2 may be waived in the other cases of issuance of a residence title pursuant to Chapter 2, Part 5. Where application of subsection 1, no. 2 is waived, the foreigners authority may point out that expulsion is possible on account of certain public interests in expelling the foreigner forming the subject of criminal or other proceedings which are still in progress, whereby such interests are to be specified.
individually. Application of subsection 2 shall be waived in the event of a residence title being issued pursuant to Section 26 (3).

(4) A residence title shall be refused if there is a public interest in expelling the foreigner within the meaning of Section 54 (1) no. 2 or no. 4. Exemptions from sentence 1 may be approved in justified individual cases, if the foreigner divulges said activities or allegiances to the competent authorities and credibly distances himself or herself from his or her actions posing a threat to security. In justified individual cases, the Federal Ministry of the Interior or a body designated by the Federal Ministry of the Interior may permit exemptions from sentence 1 before the foreigner enters the country for the purpose of crossing the border, and for a subsequent stay of up to six months.

Section 6
Visa

(1) A foreigner may be issued the following visas in accordance with Regulation (EC) no. 810/2009:

- a visa for the purpose of transit through the territory of the Schengen states or for planned stays in this territory of up to 90 days within a 180-day period (Schengen visa),
- an airport transit visa for the purpose of passing through the international transit area at airports.

(2) In accordance with Regulation (EC) no. 810/2009, Schengen visas may be extended up to a total stay of 90 days within a 180-day period. A Schengen visa may be extended by a further 90 days within the 180-day period concerned as a national visa on the grounds stated in Article 33 of the Regulation (EC) no. 810/2009/EC, to safeguard the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany or for reasons of international law.

(3) A visa for the federal territory (national visa) shall be required for stays of longer duration; this visa shall be issued before the foreigner enters the federal territory. Issuance shall be based on the regulations applying to the temporary residence permit, the EU Blue Card, the permanent settlement permit and the EU long-term residence permit. The duration of lawful stay with a national visa shall be offset against the periods of possession of a temporary residence permit, EU Blue Card, permanent settlement permit or EU long-term residence permit.

(4) An exceptional visa within the meaning of Section 14 (2) shall be issued as a visa within the meaning of subsection 1 no. 1 or subsection 3.

Section 7
Temporary residence permit

(1) The temporary residence permit (Aufenthaltserlaubnis) shall be a residence title which is limited in time. It shall be issued for the purposes of residence stated in the following Parts of this Act. In justified cases, a temporary residence permit may also be issued for a purpose of residence which is not covered by this Act.

(2) The temporary residence permit shall be subject to a time limit which takes due account of the intended purpose of residence. Should a vital prerequisite for issuance, extension or the duration of validity cease to apply, it shall also be possible to subsequently reduce the length of validity.

Section 8
Extension of the temporary residence permit

(1) Extension of the temporary residence permit shall be subject to the same regulations as apply to issuance.

(2) As a general rule, the temporary residence permit shall not be extended if the competent authority has prohibited an extension in the case of a stay which is of only a temporary nature in accordance with the purpose of residence or at the time the temporary residence permit was last extended.

(3) Before the temporary residence permit is extended, it must be ascertained whether the foreigner has fulfilled his or her obligation to duly attend an integration course. If a foreigner breaches his or her obligation to duly attend an integration course pursuant to Section 44a (1), sentence 1, this shall be taken into account in the decision on extending the temporary residence permit. Where no entitlement to issuance of the temporary residence permit exists, extension of the temporary residence permit shall be refused in the case of repeated and gross breach of the obligations pursuant to sentence 1. Where an entitlement to extension of the temporary residence permit applies only pursuant to this Act, extension may be refused unless the foreigner furnishes evidence that he or she has achieved integration into the community and society by other means. In reaching a decision on this matter, due consideration shall be given to the duration of lawful stay, the foreigner’s legitimate ties to the federal territory and consequences of the termination of residence for dependants of the foreigner who are lawfully resident in the federal territory. If a foreigner was or is obliged to attend an integration course pursuant to Section 44a (1), sentence 1, the temporary residence permit shall be extended for at most one year if he or she has not successfully completed the integration course or has not yet furnished evidence that he or she has achieved integration into the community and society by other means.

(4) Subsection 3 shall not be applicable to the extension of a temporary residence permit issued pursuant to Section 25 (1), (2) or (3).

Section 9
Permanent settlement permit

(1) The permanent settlement permit (Niederlassungsverlaubnis) shall be a residence title which is not limited in time. It shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity and may only be supplemented with a subsidiary provision in those cases which are expressly permitted by this Act. Section 47 shall remain unaffected.

(2) A foreigner shall be granted the permanent settlement permit provided that

1. he or she has held a temporary residence permit for five years,
2. his or her subsistence is secure,
3. he or she has paid compulsory or voluntary contributions into the statutory pension scheme for at least 60 months or furnishes evidence of an entitlement to comparable benefits from an insurance or pension scheme or from an insurance company; time off for the purposes of child care or nursing at home shall be duly taken into account,
4. the granting of such a temporary residence permit is not precluded by reasons of public safety or order, according due consideration to the severity or the nature of the breach of public safety or order or the danger emanating from the foreigner, with due regard to the duration of the foreigner’s stay to date and the existence of ties in the federal territory,
5. he or she is permitted to be in employment, if he or she is in employment,
6. he or she is in possession of the other permits which are required for the purpose of the permanent pursuit of his or her economic activity,
7. he or she has a sufficient command of the German language,
8. he or she possesses a basic knowledge of the legal and social system and the way of life in the federal territory and
9. he or she possesses sufficient living space for himself or herself and the members of his or her family forming part of his or her household.
The requirements of sentence 1, nos. 7 and 8 shall be deemed to be fulfilled if an integration course has been successfully completed. These requirements shall be waived if the foreigner is unable to fulfil them on account of a physical, mental or psychological illness or handicap. The requirements of sentence 1, nos. 7 and 8 may also be waived in order to avoid hardship. The aforesaid requirements shall further be waived if the foreigner is able to communicate verbally in the German language at a basic level and has not been entitled to participate in an integration course pursuant to Section 44 (3), no. 2 or has not been obliged to participate in an integration course pursuant to Section 44a (2), no. 3. The requirements of sentence 1, nos. 2 and 3 shall also be waived if the foreigner is unable to fulfil them due to the grounds stated in sentence 3.

(3) In the case of cohabiting spouses, it shall suffice if the requirements in accordance with subsection 2, sentence 1, nos. 3, 5 and 6 are fulfilled by one spouse. The requirement in accordance with subsection 2, sentence 1, no. 3 shall be waived if the foreigner is undergoing education or training which leads to a recognised school, vocational or higher education qualification. Sentence 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis in the cases covered by Section 26 (4).

(4) The following periods shall be taken into account with regard to the periods of possession of a temporary residence permit which are necessary in order to qualify for issuance of a permanent settlement permit:

1. The duration of former possession of a temporary residence permit or permanent settlement permit, if the foreigner was in possession of a permanent settlement permit at the time of leaving the federal territory, minus the duration of intermediate stays outside of the federal territory which led to expiry of the permanent settlement permit; a maximum of four years shall be taken into account.

2. A maximum of six months for each stay outside of the federal territory which has not led to expiry of the temporary residence permit.

3. Half of the period of lawful stay for the purposes of study or vocational training in the federal territory.

Section 9a

6. he or she possesses sufficient living space for himself or herself and the members of his or her family forming part of his or her household.

Section 9 (2), sentences 2 to 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis to sentence 1, nos. 3 and 4.

   b) if an extension to his or her temporary residence permit has been prohibited pursuant to Section 8 (2) or
   c) if his or her temporary residence permit serves to enable the foreigner to live together or to continue to live together as a family with a foreigner who himself/herself is only resident in the federal territory for a purpose of an inherently temporary nature, where no independent right of residence would arise upon the family unity ending.

(1) The following periods shall be credited towards the necessary periods pursuant to Section 9a (2), sentence 1, no. 1:

1. periods of residence outside of the federal territory during which the foreigner possessed a residence title and
   a) was resident abroad on account of having been sent to a foreign country in connection with his or her work, provided that such individual periods have not exceeded six months or a longer period stipulated by the foreigners authority pursuant to Section 51 (1), no. 7, or
   b) the total periods do not exceed six consecutive months or, within the period stated in Section 9a (2), sentence 1, no. 1, a total of ten months,

Periods of residence pursuant to Section 9a (3), no. 5 and periods of residence in which the foreigner also met the conditions of Section 9a (3), no. 3 shall not be credited. Periods of residence outside of the federal territory shall not be deemed to interrupt the period of residence pursuant to Section 9a (2), sentence 1, no. 1 where the residence outside of the federal territory has not resulted in expiry of the residence title; such periods shall not be considered when determining the total duration of residence pursuant to Section 9a (2), sentence 1, no. 1. (3) A foreigner whose asylum application has been incontestably rejected or who has withdrawn his or her asylum application may only be granted a residence title prior to leaving the federal territory in accordance with the provisions of Part 5. If the asylum application has been rejected in accordance with Section 30 (3), nos. 1 to 6 of the Asylum Act, no residence title may be issued prior to the foreigner leaving the federal territory. Sentences 1 and 2 shall not apply in cases of entitlement to issuance of a residence title; sentence 2 shall further not apply where the foreigner meets the requirements for issuance of a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 25 (3).

Section 11

Ban on entry and residence
(1) A foreigner who has been expelled, removed or deported shall be permitted neither to re-enter nor to stay in the federal territory, nor may he or she be granted a residence title, even if he or she is entitled thereto under this Act (ban on entry and residence).
(2) The ban on entry and residence shall be subject to a time limit imposed ex officio. The period shall begin to run upon the foreigner leaving the country. In the event of expulsion, the period shall be set upon issuance of the expulsion order. In other cases, the period should be set upon issuance of the deportation warning, at the latest, however, upon the foreigner’s deportation or removal. In addition to imposing a time limit, a condition may also be imposed in order to prevent a threat to public safety and law and order, in particular the provision of proof of impunity or of not using narcotic substances. If the condition is not met before the expiry of the time limit, a longer time limit issued ex officio when the time limit is imposed pursuant to sentence 5 shall apply.
(3) A discretionary decision shall be taken regarding the length of the time limit. It may exceed five years only if the foreigner was expelled on the ground of a criminal conviction or if he or she presents a serious threat to public safety and law and order. This period should not exceed ten years.
(4) The ban on entry and residence may be revoked in order to uphold the interests of the foreigner meriting protection or insofar as it is no longer required for the purpose of the ban on entry and residence, or else the period referred to in subsection 2 may be shortened. The ban on entry and residence should be revoked if the conditions for the issuance of a residence title under Chapter 2 Part 5 are met. The period referred to in subsection 2 may be extended on the grounds of public safety and law and order. Subsection 3 shall apply mutatis mutandis.
(5) No time limit shall be applied and the ban on entry and residence shall not be revoked if a foreigner has been deported from the federal territory on account of a crime against peace, a war crime or a crime against humanity, or on the basis of a deportation order pursuant to Section 58a. The supreme Land authority may permit exemptions from sentence 1 in individual cases.
(6) A ban on entry and residence may be imposed against a foreigner who has not fulfilled his or her obligation to leave the country within the period allowed for departure, unless the foreigner was prevented from leaving through no fault of his or her own or has exceeded the period allowed for departure by an insignificant amount of time. Subsections 1 to 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis. The ban on entry and residence is to be subject to a time limit upon its being ordered pursuant to sentence 1. Upon the first ordering of the ban on entry and residence pursuant to sentence 1, the period should not exceed one year. Otherwise, the period should not exceed three years. A ban on entry and residence shall not be ordered where there are grounds for temporarily suspending deportation pursuant to Section 60a for which the foreigner was not responsible.

(7) The Federal Office for Migration and Refugees may impose a ban on entry and residence against a foreigner

1. whose asylum application was rejected as manifestly unfounded pursuant to Section 29a (1) of the Asylum Act, who was not granted subsidiary protection, for whom the existence of the conditions for imposition of a ban on deportation pursuant to Section 60 (5) or (7) was not established and who is in possession of no residence title or

2. whose application, pursuant to Section 71 or Section 71a of the Asylum Act, repeatedly did not lead to a follow-up asylum procedure.

The ban on entry and residence becomes effective upon the decision on the application for asylum having legal validity. Subsections 1 to 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis. The ban on entry and residence is to be subject to a time limit upon its being ordered pursuant to sentence 1. Upon the first ordering of the ban on entry and residence pursuant to sentence 1, the period should not exceed one year. Otherwise, the period should not exceed three years.

(8) Except in the cases referred to in subsection 5, sentence 1, the foreigner may, before the ban on entry and residence expires, by way of exception be granted temporary entrance into the federal territory for a short period if his or her presence is required for compelling reasons or if the refusal of permission would constitute undue hardship. Subsection 5, sentence 2, shall apply mutatis mutandis in cases pursuant to subsection 5, sentence 1.

(9) Where a foreigner enters the federal territory in contravention of a ban on entry and residence, the course of a period set for the duration of his or her residence in the federal territory shall be suspended. The period may be extended in such cases, at the most, however, by the length of the original time limit imposed. The foreigner is to be informed about this possibility upon a time limit being imposed for the first time. Subsections 3 and 4, sentence 1, shall apply mutatis mutandis to a time limit extended pursuant to sentence 2.

Section 12

Area of application; subsidiary provisions

(1) The residence title shall be issued for the federal territory. Its validity in accordance with the provisions of the Convention Implementing the Schengen Agreement for residence in the territories of the parties signatory shall remain unaffected.

(2) The visa and the temporary residence permit may be issued and extended subject to conditions. Conditions, in particular geographic restrictions, may also be imposed subsequently on visa and temporary residence permits.

(3) A foreigner is to leave forthwith any part of the federal territory which he or she may enter in breach of a geographic restriction without the permission of the foreigners authority.

(4) The stay of a foreigner who does not require a residence title may be made subject to time limits, geographic restrictions, conditions and requirements.

(5) The foreigners authority may permit the foreigner to leave the residence area which is restricted on the basis of this Act. This permission shall be granted if an urgent public interest applies, if it is necessary for compelling reasons or if refusing permission would constitute undue hardship. The foreigner shall need no permission to attend appointments at authorities or court hearings where his personal appearance is necessary.
Section 12a
Residence rule

(1) In order to promote their sustainable integration into the way of life in the Federal Republic of Germany, foreigners who have been recognised as being entitled to asylum, having refugee status within the meaning of Section 3 (1) of the Asylum Act, who have been granted subsidiary protection within the meaning Section 4 (1) of the Asylum Act or who have been granted an initial temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 22, Section 23 or Section 25 (3) shall be obliged to take up their habitual residence (place of residence) for a period of three years as from recognition or issuance of the temporary residence permit in that Land to which they have been allocated for the purposes of their asylum procedure or in the context of their admission process. Sentence 1 shall not apply where a foreigner, his or her spouse, registered domestic partner or minor child takes up or has taken up employment, at least 15 hours per week with full social security coverage, on account of which that person has an income amounting to at least the average monthly needs for individual persons pursuant to Sections 20 and 22 of Book Two of the Social Code, or that person takes up or has taken up vocational training or is pursuing his or her studies or is in a training relationship.

(2) A foreigner who is subject to the obligation under subsection 1 and who is living in a reception centre or other temporary accommodation may within six months following recognition or admission, but no later than the expiry of the period referred to in subsection 1, be obliged, for the purposes of providing him or her with suitable accommodation, to take up residence in a specific place if this is not precluded by the promotion of his or her sustainable integration into the way of life in the Federal Republic of Germany. Insofar as, in an individual case, it was not possible to allocate suitable accommodation within six months, such allocation pursuant to sentence 1 may be made within a further six months on one occasion.

(3) In order to promote their sustainable integration into the way of life in the Federal Republic of Germany, foreigners who are subject to the obligation pursuant to subsection 1 shall be obliged, within six months following recognition or the first issuance of a temporary residence permit, but no later than the expiry of the period applicable in accordance with subsection 1, to take up residence in a specific place if this can facilitate

1. their being provided with suitable accommodation,

2. their acquiring sufficient oral command of the German language pursuant to Level A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages and

3. their commencing paid employment, taking account of the local conditions on the vocational training and labour market.

(4) Foreigners who are subject to the obligation under subsection 1 may, in order to prevent social exclusion, also be obliged up until the expiry of the period applicable under subsection 1, not to take up residence in a specific place, in particular if it is to be expected that they will not use German as the key lingua franca at that place. Account is to be taken of the situation of the local vocational training and labour market when taking this decision.

(5) An obligation imposed or allocation made pursuant to subsections 1 to 4 is to be revoked upon application by the foreigner

1. if the foreigner furnishes proof, in the event of an obligation being imposed or allocation being made pursuant to subsections 1 to 3 to take up residence at another place, or in the event of an obligation being imposed pursuant to subsection 4 not to make his or her residence at a place, that

   a) he or she or his or her spouse, registered domestic partner or minor child is in employment with full social security coverage within the meaning of subsection 1, sentence 2, has an income which secures his or her subsistence or a vocational training or place to study or
b) his or her spouse, registered domestic partner or minor, unmarried children have their place of residence elsewhere,

2. to prevent hardship; in particular, hardship shall exist where
   a) the competent Youth Welfare Office estimates that the effectiveness of child and youth welfare benefits and measures pursuant to Book Eight of the Social Code would be undermined on account of the effectiveness of local child and youth welfare benefits and measures,
   b) acceptance by another Land has been confirmed on other urgent, personal grounds or
   c) comparable unreasonable restrictions would arise for the person concerned on other grounds.

In the event of revocation pursuant to sentence 1 no. 2, the foreigner is to be obliged pursuant to subsection 3 or 4, at most up until the expiry of the period referred to in subsection 1, account having been taken of his or her interests.

(6) Where dependants subsequently immigrate to be with a foreigner who is subject to an obligation imposed or allocation made pursuant to subsections 1 to 4, the obligation or allocation shall also apply to the dependants subsequently immigrating at most up until the expiry of the period applicable to the foreigner pursuant to subsection 1, unless the competent authority has ordered a different measure. Subsection 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the subsequently immigrating dependants.

(7) Subsections 1 to 6 shall not apply to foreigners who were recognised or initially granted a temporary residence permit within the meaning of subsection 1 before 1 January 2016.

(8) Objections and actions filed against obligations pursuant to subsections 2 to 4 shall have no suspensory effect.

(9) When it comes to foreigners who are subject to the obligation pursuant to subsection 1, the Länder may, by way of statutory instruments of the Land government or other Land regulations, issue regulations concerning particulars concerning the organisation, procedure and suitable accommodation relating to

1. their distribution within the Land pursuant to subsection 2,
2. the procedure for making allocations and imposing obligations pursuant to subsections 2 to 4,
3. the requirements as to suitable accommodation within the meaning of subsections 2, 3 no. 1 and subsection 5, sentence 1, no. 1 letter a), as well as the form of its proof,
4. the manner of furnishing proof of employment with full social security coverage pursuant to subsection 1, sentence 2, income which secures subsistence, as well as of having a vocational training place or a place to study within the meaning of subsections 1 and 5, sentence 1, no. 1, letter a),
5. the obligation to be taken up by the municipality determined as his or her place of residence and the admission process.

Part 2
Entry
Section 13
Border crossing

(1) Entry into and exit from the federal territory shall be permitted only at the approved border crossing points and within the stipulated traffic hours, in the absence of any exceptions which may be permissible on the basis of other statutory provisions or intergovernmental agreements. Foreigners shall be obliged to carry a recognised and valid passport or passport substitute in accordance with Section 3 (1) when entering or leaving the federal territory and to submit to the police control of cross-border traffic.

(2) A foreigner shall be deemed to have entered the federal territory only after having crossed the border and passed through the border checkpoint. Should the authorities charged with policing cross-border traffic allow a foreigner to pass through the border checkpoint for a specific temporary purpose prior to a decision on the refusal of entry (Section 15 of this Act, Sections 18, 18a of the Asylum Act) or during preparation, safeguarding and implementation of this measure, this shall not constitute entry pursuant to sentence 1 as long as the said authorities remain able to monitor the foreigner's stay. The foreigner shall otherwise be deemed to have entered the federal territory when crossing the border.

Section 14

Unlawful entry; exceptional visa

(1) The entry of a foreigner into the federal territory shall be unlawful if he or she

1. does not possess a required passport or passport substitute in accordance with Section 3 (1),
2. does not possess the residence title required in accordance with Section 4,
2a. does possess the necessary visa pursuant to Section 4 upon entry, but obtained it by threat, bribery or collusion or by furnishing incorrect or incomplete information, for which reason it is revoked or annulled retrospectively, or
3. is not permitted to enter the federal territory in accordance with Section 11 (1), (6) or (7) unless he or she possesses a temporary entry permit in accordance with Section 11 (8).

(2) The authorities charged with policing cross-border traffic may issue exceptional visa and passport substitute documents.

Section 15

Refusal of entry

(1) A foreigner wishing to enter the federal territory unlawfully shall be refused entry at the border.

(2) A foreigner may be refused entry at the border if

1. there is a public interest in expelling the foreigner,
2. there is a well-founded suspicion that the foreigner does not intend to stay in the country for the stated purpose,
2a. he or she only possesses a Schengen visa or is exempted from the visa requirement for a short-term stay and intends to pursue an economic activity counter to Section 4 (3), sentence 1 or
3. he or she does not fulfill the conditions for entry into the territory of the parties signatory in accordance with Article 5 of the Schengen Borders Code.

(3) A foreigner who is exempted from the requirement for a residence title for the purpose of a temporary stay in the federal territory may be refused entry if he or she does not fulfill the requirements of Section 3 (1) and Section 5 (1).

(4) Section 60 (1) to (3), (5) and (7) to (9) shall apply mutatis mutandis. A foreigner who has filed an application for asylum may not be refused entry if he or she is permitted to stay in the federal territory in accordance with the provisions of the Asylum Act.

(5) In order to ensure that a refusal of entry is effective where a ruling to refuse entry has been issued and cannot be enforced immediately, the foreigner concerned is to be taken into custody (detention pending exit from the federal territory) by virtue of a judicial order. Section 62 (4) shall otherwise apply mutatis mutandis. Subsection 1 shall not apply in cases in which the judge declines to issue a corresponding judicial order or to extend the period of detention.

(6) Where the foreigner has reached the federal territory by air and has not entered pursuant to Section 13 (2) but has been refused entry, he or she shall be taken to the transit area of an airport or to a place of accommodation from which his or her exit from the federal territory is possible if detention pending exit from the federal territory is not applied for. The foreigner’s stay in the transit area of an airport or in accommodation pursuant to sentence 1 shall require a judicial order no later than 30 days after arrival at the airport or, should the time of arrival not be ascertainable, after the competent authorities obtain knowledge of the foreigner’s arrival. The judicial order shall be issued to ensure the foreigner’s due exit from the federal territory. It shall be permitted only where exit is to be expected within the term of the order. Subsection 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 15a
Allocation to the Länder of foreigners who have entered the federal territory unlawfully

(1) Foreigners who enter the country illegally without applying for asylum and who, upon their illegal entry being established, cannot be placed in custody pending deportation and deported or expelled directly from custody are to be allocated to the respective Länder prior to the decision on the suspension of deportation or issuance of a residence title. They shall not be entitled to be allocated to a specific Land or a specific town or location. Allocation to the Länder shall be carried out by a central allocation agency to be appointed by the Federal Ministry of the Interior. In the absence of any divergent allocation basis agreed between the Länder, the allocation basis stipulated for the allocation of asylum seekers shall apply. Each Land shall appoint up to seven authorities to initiate allocation by the agency appointed in accordance with sentence 3 and to admit the allocated foreigners. If the foreigner furnishes evidence prior to allocation that a household community exists between spouses or parents and their minor children or that other compelling reasons exist which conflict with allocation to a certain place, this shall receive due consideration in the allocation process.

(2) The foreigners authorities may require foreigners to present themselves to the authority initiating allocation. This shall not apply when due consideration is to be accorded to submissions in accordance with subsection 1, sentence 6. An obligation imposed in accordance with sentence 1 shall not be contestable. Any legal actions shall have no suspensory effect.

(3) The central allocation agency shall inform the authority which has initiated allocation as to the reception centre which is obliged to admit the foreigners concerned pursuant to sentences 2 and 3. If the Land whose authority has initiated allocation has not filled its admission quota, the Land’s reception centre located nearest to this authority with available admission capacity shall be obliged to admit the foreigners concerned. Otherwise, the reception centre designated by the central allocation agency on the basis of the allocation quota pursuant to Section 45 of the Asylum Act and the available accommodation capacities shall be obliged to admit the foreigners concerned. Section 46 (4) and (5) of the Asylum Act are to be applied mutatis mutandis.

(4) In the cases covered by subsection 3, sentence 3, the authority which has initiated allocation pursuant to subsection 3 shall order the foreigner to report to the reception centre designated as a result of the allocation process; in the cases covered by subsection 3, sentence 2, it may issue such an order. The foreigners authority shall forward the result of the interview to the authority initiating allocation, which shall notify the central allocation agency of the number of foreigners, stating the countries of origin and the results of the interview. Spouses and parents and their minor, unmarried children shall be registered and allocated as a group. The foreigner is to stay at this reception centre until re-allocated to another location within the Land, but until suspension of deportation or until issuance of a residence title at the latest; Sections 12 and 61 (1) shall remain unaffected. The Land governments shall be authorised to regulate allocation within the Land by statutory instrument, insofar as allocation is not regulated by Land law on the basis of this Act; Section 50 (4) of the Asylum Act shall apply mutatis mutandis. The Land governments may assign the said authorisation to other bodies of the Land. Orders pursuant to sentence 1 shall not be contestable. Any legal actions shall have no suspensory effect. Sentences 7 and 8 shall apply mutatis mutandis, if an allocation order is issued on the basis of a Land law or a statutory instrument pursuant to sentence 5.

(5) Following allocation, the competent authorities may permit the foreigner to take up residence in another Land. Following a permitted change of residence, the foreigner shall be deducted from the quota for the Land from which he or she is released and added to the quota for the admitting Land.

(6) The provisions of subsections 1 to 5 shall not apply to persons who verifiably entered the federal territory prior to 1 January 2005.

Part 3

Residence for educational purposes

Section 16

Further education; language courses; school education

(1) A foreigner may be granted a temporary residence permit for the purpose of studying at a state or state-recognised university or a comparable educational establishment. Residence for study purposes shall also extend to language courses in preparation for studies and attendance of a preparatory course prior to studying (preparatory measures for courses of study). The temporary residence permit for study purposes may only be issued where the foreigner has been admitted by the educational establishment concerned; conditional admission is sufficient. Proof of a knowledge of the language in which the course of studies is to be conducted shall not be required where the foreigner's knowledge of the language has already been taken into account in the decision on admission or is to be acquired by means of preparatory measures for the course of study. The period of validity when the temporary residence permit for study purposes is issued for the first time and for each subsequent extension shall be at least one year and should not exceed two years during courses of study and preparatory measures for courses of study; it may be extended where the purpose of residence has not yet been achieved and is achievable within a reasonable period of time.

(1a) A foreigner may also be issued a temporary residence permit for the purpose of applying to a course of study. The maximum permissible duration of residence for a foreigner applying for a place to study shall be nine months.

(2) As a general rule, no temporary residence permit for another purpose of residence shall be granted or extended during the stay in accordance with subsection 1 or 1a, unless a legal entitlement applies. Section 9 shall not apply.

(3) The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to take up employment totalling no more than 120 days or 240 half-days per year, and to take up spare-time student employment. This shall not apply in the first year of residence during a stay for the purpose of preparatory measures for a course of study, except during university holidays and in the case of residence pursuant to subsection 1a.

(4) After successful completion of the studies, the temporary residence permit may be extended by up to 18 months for the purpose of seeking a job commensurate with this qualification, provided that foreigners are permitted to fill the vacancy concerned in accordance with the provisions contained in Sections 18, 19, 19a and 21. The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity in this period. Section 9 shall not apply.

(5) A foreigner may be granted a temporary residence permit allowing him or her to attend language courses which do not serve to prepare him or her for a course of study, to take part in a pupil exchange, and, in exceptional cases, to attend school education. Subsection 2 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(5a) Where such school education pursuant to subsection 5 serves to acquire vocational qualification, the temporary residence permit shall authorise its holder to work up to 10 hours per week in jobs which need not be related to such vocational qualification.

(5b) After successful completion of such vocational qualification, the temporary residence permit may be extended by up to one year for the purposes of seeking a job commensurate with this qualification, provided that foreigners are permitted to fill the vacancy in accordance with the provisions contained in Sections 18 and 21. The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity in this period. Section 9 shall not apply.

(6) A foreigner to whom another member state of the European Union has issued a residence title for study purposes which falls within the ambit of Council Directive 2004/114/EC of 13 December 2004 on the conditions of admission of third-country nationals for the purposes of studies, pupil exchange, unremunerated training or voluntary service (Official EU Journal no. L 375, p. 12) shall be granted a temporary residence permit for the same purpose where he or she

1. wishes to carry out part of his or her studies at an educational establishment in the federal territory because he or she is obliged under the terms of reference for the course of studies to carry out part of his or her studies at an educational establishment of another member state of the European Union or

2. fulfils the conditions pursuant to subsection 1 and wishes to continue in the federal territory part of a course of study commenced in another member state or to supplement such a course of study in the federal territory and

   a) is participating in an exchange programme between the member states of the European Union or in an exchange programme of the European Union or

   b) has been admitted to a course of study for a period of at least two years in the other member state of the European Union.

A foreigner who applies for a residence title pursuant to sentence 1, no. 2 is to submit to the competent authority documentation on his or her academic education to date and on the intended course of studies in Germany which verifies that the studies in the federal territory shall constitute a continuation or supplementation of the studies completed to date. Section 9 is not applicable.

(7) Where the foreigner is under 18 years of age, the persons entitled to care and custody of the foreigner must consent to the planned stay.

Section 17

Other educational purposes

(1) A foreigner may be issued a temporary residence permit for the purpose of basic and advanced industrial training, if the Federal Employment Agency has granted approval in accordance with Section 39 or if a statutory provision in accordance with Section 42 or an inter-governmental agreement stipulates that such basic and advanced vocational training is permissible without approval from the Federal Employment Agency. Any restrictions imposed by the Federal Employment Agency in granting approval are to be specified in the temporary residence permit. Section 16 (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(2) Where such training serves to acquire vocational qualification, the temporary residence permit shall authorise its holder to work up to 10 hours per week in jobs which need not be related to such vocational training.

(3) After successful completion of such vocational training, the temporary residence permit may be extended by up to one year for the purposes of seeking a job commensurate with this qualification, provided that foreigners are permitted to fill the vacancy in accordance with the provisions contained in Sections 18 and 21. The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity in this period. Section 9 shall not apply.

Section 17a
Recognition of foreign professional qualifications

(1) For the purposes of the recognition of professional qualifications which a foreigner has acquired abroad, he or she may be granted a temporary residence permit for up to 18 months in order to be able to undertake a training measure and a subsequent examination if a body responsible according to regulations issued by the federal government or by the Länder as regards recognition of professional qualifications has established that adaptation measures or further qualifications are necessary

1. to establish the equivalence of the professional qualification with a German professional qualification or
2. to grant authorisation to practise the profession or to issue permission to use the professional title in a regulated profession in Germany.

The training measure must be suited to enabling recognition of the foreigner’s professional qualification or access to the profession. If the majority of the training measure is carried out in a business enterprise, issuance of the temporary residence permit presupposes that the Federal Employment Agency has consented thereto pursuant to Section 39 or it has been determined by statutory instrument pursuant to Section 42 or intergovernmental agreement that participation in the training measure is permissible without the consent of the Federal Employment Agency. Restrictions imposed when the Federal Employment Agency gives its consent shall be endorsed in the temporary residence permit.

(2) The temporary residence permit shall authorise the holder to pursue an economic activity which is independent of the training measure for up to ten hours per week.

(3) The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity which is not restricted in terms of time whose requirements are closely connected to the specialist skills needed in the later employment if there is a concrete offer of a job for later employment in the profession which is to be recognised or which is covered by the authorisation to practise the profession applied for or permission to use the professional title applied for, this job may be taken by foreigners in accordance with the provisions of Sections 18 to 20 and the Federal Employment Agency has consented thereto pursuant to Section 39 or it has been determined by statutory instrument pursuant to Section 42 or intergovernmental agreement that the employment is permissible without the consent of the Federal Employment Agency. Restrictions imposed when the Federal Employment Agency gives its consent shall be endorsed in the temporary residence permit.

(4) Once equivalence of the professional qualification has been established, the authorisation to practise the profession has been granted or permission to use the professional title has been granted, the temporary residence permit may be extended for up to one year to allow the foreigner to seek employment which corresponds to the recognised professional qualification, insofar as it may be taken by foreigners pursuant to the provisions of Sections 18 to 20. During this period the temporary residence permit shall authorise the holder to pursue an economic activity. Section 9 shall not apply.

(5) A foreigner may be granted a temporary residence permit in order to take an examination for the recognition of his or her foreign professional qualification if there is a concrete offer of a job for later employment in the profession which is to be recognised or which is covered by the authorisation to practise the profession applied for or permission to use the professional title applied for, this job may be taken by foreigners in accordance with the provisions of Sections 18 to 20 and the Federal Employment Agency has consented thereto pursuant to Section 39 or it has been determined by statutory instrument pursuant to Section 42 or intergovernmental agreement that the employment is permissible without the consent of the Federal Employment Agency. Restrictions imposed when the Federal Employment Agency gives its consent shall be endorsed in the temporary residence permit. Subsections 2 to 4 shall not apply.

Any restrictions imposed by the Federal Employment Agency in granting approval are to be specified in the residence title.

In justified individual cases, a temporary residence permit may be issued for the purpose of taking up employment when there is a public interest, and in particular a regional interest or an interest relating to the economy or the labour market.
(5) A residence title pursuant to subsection 2, Section 19 or Section 19a may only be granted if a concrete job offer exists and if any legally prescribed professional licence has been granted or promised.
(6) The granting or extension of a residence title pursuant to subsection 2, Section 19 or Section 19a, which does not require approval by the Federal Employment Agency owing to provisions in this Act, in a statutory instrument or an inter-governmental agreement, may be denied if there are grounds that would allow the authorities to deny the necessary approval pursuant to Section 40 (2) no. 3.

(1a) Where deportation has been suspended pursuant to Section 60a (2), sentence 4, a temporary residence permit is to be granted for a period of two years after the foreigner has successfully concluded this vocational training for employment which corresponds to the professional qualifications acquired if the conditions referred to in subsection 1 nos. 2 to 7 are met and the Federal Employment Agency has consented thereto pursuant to Section 39.

Statutory instruments under nos. 1 and 2 shall require the approval of the Bundesrat. The EU Blue Card shall be issued for a maximum period of four years from the date of initial issue. Where the duration of the employment contract is less than four years, the EU Blue Card shall be issued or extended for the period covering the employment contract plus three months.

Holders of the EU Blue Card wishing to move to another position within the first two years of employment shall require permission by the foreigners authority; such permission shall be granted if the conditions in subsection 1 are met.

(5) Foreigners

Section 9 (2) sentences 2 to 6 shall apply mutatis mutandis. The period referred to in sentence 1 shall be reduced to 21 months if the foreigner has a sufficient command of the German language.

Section 20
Research

(1) A foreigner shall be granted a temporary residence permit for research purposes where

1. he or she has concluded an effective admission agreement for the purpose of carrying out a research project with a research establishment which is recognised for implementation of the special admission procedure for researchers in the federal territory pursuant to Council Directive 2005/71/EC of 12 October 2005 on a specific procedure for admitting third-country nationals for the purposes of scientific research (Official EU Journal no. L 289, p. 15) and

2. the recognised research establishment has undertaken in writing to bear the costs accruing to public bodies up to six months after termination of the admission agreement for

   a) the foreigner’s subsistence during an unlawful stay in a member state of the European Union and

   b) a deportation of the foreigner.

(2) The requirement pursuant to subsection 1, no. 2 should be waived where the activities of the research establishment are financed primarily from public funds. The requirement may be waived where there is a special public interest in the research project. Section 66 (5), Section 67 (3) and Section 68 (2), sentences 2 and 3 and (4) shall be applicable mutatis mutandis to the declarations furnished pursuant to subsection 1, no. 2.

(3) The research establishment may also submit the declaration pursuant to subsection 1, no. 2 to the body responsible for its recognition as a general declaration for all foreigners to whom a temporary residence permit is issued on the basis of an admission agreement concluded with the establishment concerned.

(4) The temporary residence permit shall be issued for a period of at least one year. By way of derogation from sentence 1, where the research project is completed in a shorter period the term of the temporary residence permit shall be limited to the duration of the research project.

(5) Foreigners who hold a residence title from another member state of the European Union for research purposes pursuant to Directive 2005/71/EC shall be granted a temporary residence permit or a visa for the purpose of carrying out parts of the research project in the federal territory. The temporary residence permit shall be issued for a stay of more than 90 days only if the conditions pursuant to subsection 1 are met. Section 9 is not applicable.

(6) A temporary residence permit pursuant to subsections 1 and 5, sentence 2 shall entitle the holder to take up research at the research establishment specified in the admission agreement and to take up teaching activities. Changes to the research project during the stay shall not cause this entitlement to expire. A foreigner who meets the conditions pursuant to subsection 5, sentence 1 may also pursue an economic activity pursuant to sentence 1 without a residence title for a period of three months within a twelve-month period.

(7) Subsections 1 and 5 shall not apply to foreigners

Section 21

Self-employment

(1) A foreigner may be granted a temporary residence permit for the purpose of self-employment if

1. an economic interest or a regional need applies,

2. the activity is expected to have positive effects on the economy and

3. personal capital on the part of the foreigner or a loan undertaking is available to realise the business idea.

Assessment of the prerequisites in accordance with sentence 1 shall focus in particular on the viability of the business idea forming the basis of the application, the foreigner’s entrepreneurial experience, the level of capital investment, the effects on the employment and training situation and the contribution towards innovation and research. The competent bodies for the planned business location, the competent trade and industry authorities, the representative bodies for public-sector professional groups and the competent authorities regulating admission to the profession concerned shall be involved in examining the application.

(2) A temporary residence permit for the purpose of self-employment may also be granted if special privileges apply according to agreements under international law on the basis of reciprocity.

(2a) A foreigner who has successfully completed his studies at a state or state-recognised university or a comparable educational establishment in the federal territory or who holds a temporary residence permit as a researcher or scientist in line with Sections 18 or 20 may be issued with a temporary residence permit for self-employment purposes by way of derogation from subsection 1. The envisaged self-employment must demonstrate a connection to the knowledge acquired during the higher education studies or the research or scientific activities.

(3) Foreigners aged over 45 should be issued with a temporary residence permit only if they possess adequate provision for old age.

(4) The period of validity of the temporary residence permit shall be limited to a maximum of three years. By way of derogation from Section 9 (2), a permanent settlement permit may be issued after a period of three years, provided the foreigner has successfully carried out the planned activity and adequate income ensures the subsistence of the foreigner and the dependants living with him or her as a family unit and whom he is required to support.

(5) By way of derogation from subsection 1, a foreigner may be granted a temporary residence permit for the purpose of self-employment. A required permit to practice the profession must have been issued or confirmation must have been provided that such permit will be issued. Subsection 1, sentence 3, shall apply mutatis mutandis. Subsection 4 shall not apply.

(6) A foreigner who is to be or has been granted a temporary residence permit for another purpose may be permitted to pursue self-employment while retaining the aforesaid purpose of residence where the permits required under other provisions have been issued or an undertaking has been provided that such permits will be issued.
Part 5
Residence under international law or on humanitarian or political grounds

Section 22
Admission from abroad
A foreigner may be granted a temporary residence permit for the purpose of admission from abroad in accordance with international law or on urgent humanitarian grounds. A temporary residence permit shall be granted if the Federal Ministry of the Interior or the body designated by the Federal Ministry of the Interior to uphold the political interests of the Federal Republic of Germany has declared that the foreigner is to be admitted. In the case of sentence 2, the temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity.

Section 23
Granting of residence by the supreme Land authorities; admission when special political interests apply; resettlement of persons in search of protection
(1) The supreme Land authority may order a temporary residence permit to be granted to foreigners from specific states or to certain groups of foreigners defined by other means, in accordance with international law, on humanitarian grounds or in order to uphold the political interests of the Federal Republic of Germany. The order may be issued subject to the proviso that a declaration of commitment be submitted in accordance with Section 68. In order to ensure a nationwide uniform approach, the order shall require the approval of the Federal Ministry of the Interior.
(2) In order to safeguard special political interests of the Federal Republic of Germany, in consultation with the supreme Land authorities the Federal Ministry of the Interior may order foreigners from specific states or certain categories of foreigners defined by other means to be granted approval for admission by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees. No preliminary proceedings shall take place pursuant to Section 68 of the Code of Administrative Court Procedure. The foreigners concerned shall be issued with a temporary residence permit or permanent settlement permit, in accordance with the approval for admission. The permanent settlement permit may be issued subject to a condition restricting the permissible place of residence. The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity.
(3) The order may provide for Section 24 to be applied mutatis mutandis, either in part or in its entirety.
(4) In consultation with the supreme Land authorities, the Federal Ministry of the Interior may, within the context of resettling persons seeking protection, order that the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees grant approval for admission to certain persons seeking protection who have been selected for resettlement (resettlement refugees). Subsection 2, sentence 2 to 5 and Section 24 (3) to (5) shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 23a
Granting of residence in cases of hardship
(1) By way of derogation from the prerequisites for the issuance and extension of residence titles as stipulated in this Act as well as in Sections 10 and 11, the supreme Land authority may, on petition from a Hardship Commission to be established by the Land government by virtue of a statutory instrument, order a temporary residence permit to be issued to a foreigner who is enforceably required to leave the federal territory (hardship petition). According to the individual case concerned, the said order may be issued with due consideration as to whether the foreigner’s subsistence is assured or a declaration of commitment is submitted in accordance with Section 68. A case of hardship will not generally be considered if the foreigner has committed an offence of considerable severity or if a concrete date has already been set for the foreigner’s return. The authority to grant residence represents the public interest only and does not constitute any rights on the part of the foreigner.
(2) The Land governments are authorised to establish a Hardship Commission in accordance with subsection 1 by virtue of a statutory instrument, to specify the procedure, grounds for exclusion and qualified requirements pertaining to a declaration of commitment pursuant to subsection 1, sentence 2, including conditions to be met by the party submitting such a declaration, and to assign the authority to issue orders pursuant to subsection 1, sentence 1 to other bodies. The Hardship Commissions shall take action solely on their own initiative. No third parties can require a Hardship Commission to take up a specific individual case or to make a specific decision. A Hardship Commission may only decide to file a hardship petition after establishing that urgent humanitarian or personal grounds justify the foreigner’s continued presence in the federal territory.

(3) If a foreigner who is dependent on social welfare and who has been issued a temporary residence permit in accordance with subsection 1 relocates to the area of responsibility of another institution, the social welfare institution in whose area of responsibility a foreigners authority has issued the temporary residence permit shall be required to reimburse the costs accruing to the local social welfare institution which now bears responsibility for the foreigner concerned for a maximum period of three years from the date of issue of the temporary residence permit. The same shall apply mutatis mutandis for the subsistence payments stipulated in Section 6 (1), sentence 1, no. 2 of Book Two of the Social Code.

Granting of residence for temporary protection

(1) A foreigner who is granted temporary protection on the basis of a resolution by the Council of the European Union pursuant to Directive 2001/55/EC and who declares his or her willingness to be admitted into the federal territory shall be granted a temporary residence permit for the duration of his or her temporary protection as assessed in accordance with Articles 4 and 6 of said directive.

(2) No temporary protection shall be granted if the conditions stipulated in Section 3 (2) of the Asylum Act or Section 60 (8), sentence 1 apply; the temporary residence permit shall be refused.

(3) The foreigners pursuant to subsection 1 shall be allocated to the various Länder. The Länder may agree quotas for admission to grant temporary protection and for allocation. Allocation to the various Länder shall be carried out by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees. In the absence of any divergent allocation basis agreed between the Länder, the allocation basis stipulated for the allocation of asylum seekers shall apply.

(4) The supreme Land authority or the body appointed by the same shall pass an allocation ruling. The Land governments are authorised to regulate allocation within the Länder via statutory instruments, and may assign this authorisation to other bodies via statutory instruments; Section 50 (4) of the Asylum Act shall apply mutatis mutandis. The allocation ruling shall not be contestable. Any legal actions shall have no suspensive effect.

(5) The foreigner shall have no entitlement to stay in a specific Land or a specific place. He or she shall take up his or her accommodation and ordinary residence at the place to which he or she is allocated in accordance with subsections 3 and 4.

(6) Self-employment must not be excluded. The pursuit of an economic activity with employee status shall be subject to Section 4 (2).

(7) The foreigner shall be provided with written notification of the rights and obligations pertaining to the temporary protection in a language which he or she is able to understand.

Section 25
Residence on humanitarian grounds

(1) A foreigner shall be granted a temporary residence permit if he or she is recognised as being entitled to asylum. This provision shall not apply if the foreigner has been expelled on serious grounds relating to public safety and law and order. Residence shall be deemed to be permitted up to the time the temporary residence permit is issued. The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity.
(2) A foreigner is to be granted a temporary residence permit if the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees has granted him or her refugee status within the meaning of Section 3 (1) of the Asylum Act or subsidiary protection status within the meaning of Section 4 (1) of the Asylum Act. Subsection 1, sentences 2 to 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(3) A foreigner should be granted a temporary residence permit if a deportation ban applies pursuant to Section 60 (5) or (7). The temporary residence permit shall not be granted if departure for subsequent admission to another state is possible and reasonable or the foreigner has repeatedly or grossly breached duties to cooperate. It shall, further, not be granted where serious grounds warrant the assumption that the foreigner

1. has committed a crime against peace, a war crime or a crime against humanity within the meaning of the international instruments which have been drawn up for the purpose of establishing provisions regarding such crimes,

2. has committed an offence of considerable severity,

3. is guilty of acts contrary to the objectives and principles of the United Nations, as enshrined in the Preamble and Articles 1 and 2 of the Charter of the United Nations, or

4. represents a risk to the general public or a risk to the security of the Federal Republic of Germany.

(4) A foreigner who is non-enforceably required to leave the federal territory may be granted a temporary residence permit for a temporary stay if his or her continued presence in the federal territory is necessary on urgent humanitarian or personal grounds or due to substantial public interests. By way of derogation from Section 8 (1) and (2), a temporary residence permit may be extended if departure from the federal territory would constitute exceptional hardship for the foreigner due to special circumstances pertaining to the individual case concerned.

(4a) A foreigner who has been the victim of a criminal offence pursuant to Sections 232, 233 or 233a of the Criminal Code should also be granted a temporary residence permit for a temporary stay, even if he or she is enforceably required to leave the federal territory. The temporary residence permit may only be issued if

1. the public prosecutor’s office or the criminal court considers his or her presence in the federal territory to be appropriate in connection with criminal proceedings relating to the said criminal offence, because it would be more difficult to investigate the facts of the case without his or her information,

2. he or she has broken off contact to the persons accused of having committed the criminal offence and

3. he or she has declared his or her willingness to testify as a witness in the criminal proceedings relating to the offence.

After conclusion of the criminal proceedings, the temporary residence permit should be extended if humanitarian or personal reasons or public interests require the foreigner’s further presence in the federal territory.

(4b) A foreigner who has been the victim of a criminal offence pursuant to Sections 10 (1) or 11 (1), no. 3 of the Act to Combat Clandestine Employment or pursuant to Section 15a of the Act on Temporary Employment Businesses may also be granted a temporary residence permit for a temporary stay, even if he or she is enforceably required to leave the federal territory. The temporary residence permit may only be issued if

1. the public prosecutor’s office or the criminal court considers the temporary presence of the foreigner in the federal territory to be appropriate in connection with criminal proceedings relating to the said criminal offence, because it would be more difficult to investigate the facts of the case without his or her information and
2. the foreigner has declared his or her willingness to testify as a witness in the criminal proceedings relating to the offence.

The temporary residence permit may be extended if the remuneration owed to the foreigner by the employer has not yet been paid in full, and it would represent particular hardship for the foreigner to pursue his or her entitlement from abroad.

(5) A foreigner who is enforceably required to leave the federal territory may be granted a temporary residence permit if his or her departure is impossible in fact or in law and the obstacle to deportation is not likely to be removed in the foreseeable future. The temporary residence permit should be issued if deportation has been suspended for 18 months. A temporary residence permit may only be granted if the foreigner is prevented from leaving the federal territory through no fault of his or her own. Fault on the part of the foreigner shall apply in particular if he or she furnishes false information, deceives the authorities with regard to his or her identity or nationality or fails to meet reasonable demands to eliminate the obstacles to departure.

Section 25a

Granting of residence in the case of well integrated young people and adolescents

(1) A juvenile or adolescent foreigner whose deportation has been suspended should be granted a temporary residence permit if

1. he or she has been resident in the federal territory for four years without interruption either by virtue of holding a temporary residence or permanent settlement permit, by virtue of his or her deportation having been suspended or by holding permission to remain pending the asylum decision,

2. he or she has successfully attended a school in the federal territory for, as a rule, four years or has acquired a recognised vocational or school-leaving qualification,

3. the application for the temporary residence permit is filed prior to his or her reaching the age of 21,

4. it appears, on the basis of the child’s education and way of life to date, that he or she will be able to integrate into the way of life which prevails in the Federal Republic of Germany and

5. there is no concrete evidence to suggest that the foreigner is not committed to the free democratic basic order of the Federal Republic of Germany.

For as long as the young person or adolescent attends school education, vocational training or higher education, the claiming of public benefits for the purpose of ensuring his or her subsistence shall not preclude the granting of the temporary residence permit. The granting of a temporary residence permit shall be refused if deportation has been suspended on the basis of false information furnished by the foreigner or on the grounds of deception by the foreigner about his or her identity or nationality.

(2) The parents or parent possessing the right of care and custody of a foreign minor who holds a temporary residence permit pursuant to subsection 1 may be granted a temporary residence permit if

1. deportation has not been prevented or delayed on the grounds of false information or deceit with regard to identity or nationality or due to a failure to meet reasonable demands to eliminate obstacles to departure and

2. subsistence is ensured independently by means of an economic activity.

The minor children of a foreigner who holds a temporary residence permit pursuant to sentence 1 may be granted temporary residence permits if they live with him or her as a family unit. A spouse or domestic partner who is living with the beneficiary referred to in subsection 1 as a family unit should be granted a temporary residence permit if the conditions under sentence 1 are met. Section 31 shall apply mutatis mutandis. A minor, unmarried child who is living with the beneficiary referred to in subsection 1 as a family unit should be granted a temporary residence permit.

(3) A temporary residence permit shall not be granted pursuant to subsection 2 if the foreigner has been convicted of an offence wilfully committed in the federal territory, whereby fines totalling up to 50 daily rates or up to 90 daily rates in the case of offences which, pursuant to this Act or the Asylum Act, can only be committed by foreigners, shall be ignored as a general principle.

(4) The temporary residence permit may be granted by way of derogation from Section 10 (3), sentence 2, and shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity.

Section 25b

Granting of residence in the case of sustainable integration

(1) By way of derogation from Section 5 (1) no. 1 and (2), a foreigner whose deportation has been suspended should be granted a temporary residence permit if he or she has sustainably integrated into the way of life in the Federal Republic of Germany. This shall generally presuppose that the foreigner

1. has resided in the federal territory for at least eight years or, in the event that he or she is living with a minor, unmarried child as a family unit, for at least six years without interruption by virtue of his or her deportation having been suspended, on the basis of permission to remain pending the asylum decision or by holding a temporary residence or permanent settlement permit,

2. is committed to the free democratic basic order of the Federal Republic of Germany and possesses a basic knowledge of the legal and social system and the way of life which prevails in the federal territory,

3. ensures his or her subsistence primarily by means of pursuing an economic activity or it is to be expected, when considering his or her previous educational, training, income and family situation, that he or she will be able to ensure his or her subsistence within the meaning of Section 2 (3), whereby the drawing of housing benefits shall not be detrimental thereto,

4. possesses sufficient oral command of the German language pursuant to Level A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages and

5. can furnish proof that his or her school-age children are actually attending school.

The temporary drawing of social benefits shall not generally be detrimental to the securing of subsistence in the case of

1. students attending a state or state-recognised higher education institution as well as apprentices undergoing training in a recognised trade or in a government-sponsored pre-vocational training measure,

2. families with minor children who are temporarily reliant on supplementary social benefits,

3. single parents of minor children who, pursuant to Section 10 (1) no. 3 of Book Two of the Social Code, cannot reasonably be expected to take up employment or

4. foreigners caring for close relatives in need of long-term care.

(2) The granting of a temporary residence permit pursuant to subsection 1 shall be denied where
1. the foreigner prevents or delays the termination of his or her residence by wilfully providing false information, by deceit regarding his or her identity or nationality, or non-compliance with reasonable requirements as regards cooperating in eliminating any obstacles to his or her departure or

2. there is a public interest in expelling the foreigner within the meaning of Section 54 (1) or (2) no.1 or no. 2.

(3) The conditions of subsection 1, sentence 2, no. 3 and no. 4 shall be waived if the foreigner is unable to fulfil them on account of a physical, mental or psychological illness or handicap or on grounds of old age.

(4) A spouse, domestic partner and minor, unmarried children living with the beneficiary referred to in subsection 1 as a family unit should be granted a temporary residence permit under the conditions set out in subsection 1, sentence 2, nos. 2 to 5. Subsections 2, 3 and 5 shall apply. Section 31 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(5) By way of derogation from Section 26 (1), sentence 1, the temporary residence permit shall be granted and extended for no more than two years. It may be granted by way of derogation from Section 10 (3), sentence 2, and shall authorise the holder to pursue an economic activity. Section 25a shall remain unaffected.

Section 26

Duration of residence

(1) The temporary residence permit in accordance with this Part may be issued and extended in each instance for a maximum period of three years, but for no longer than six months in cases covered by Section 25 (4), sentence 1 and (5) when the foreigner has not been legally resident in the federal territory for at least 18 months. The temporary residence permit shall be issued for three years in the cases of person granted asylum status and foreigners granted refugee status within the meaning of Section 3 (1) of the Asylum Act. The temporary residence permit shall be issued for one year in the case of persons granted subsidiary protection status within the meaning of Section 4 (1) of the Asylum Act; it may be extended for an additional two years. Foreigners who meet the requirements in Section 25 (3) shall be issued a temporary residence permit for at least one year. The temporary residence permits pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 1, and (4b) shall be issued and extended for one year in each instance, temporary residence permits pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 3, for two years in each instance; a longer period of validity is permissible in substantiated individual cases.

(3) A foreigner who is in possession of a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 25 (1) or (2), sentence 1, first alternative, shall be granted a permanent settlement permit if

1. he or she has been in possession of a temporary residence permit for five years, whereby, by way of derogation of Section 55 (3) of the Asylum Act, the period of residence while undergoing the asylum procedure which preceded the issuance of the temporary residence permit shall be credited to the period in which the foreigner is required to be in possession of a temporary residence permit in order to be issued with a permanent settlement permit,

By way of derogation from sentence 1 and 2, a foreigner in possession of a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 25 (1) or (2), sentence 1, first alternative, is to be granted a permanent settlement permit if

1. he or she has been in possession of the temporary residence permit for three years, whereby, by way of derogation from Section 55 (3) of the Asylum Act, the period of residence while undergoing the asylum procedure which preceded the issuance of the temporary residence permit shall be credited to the period in which the foreigner is required to be in possession of a temporary residence permit in order to be issued with a permanent settlement permit,

2. the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees has not given notification in accordance with Section 73 (2a) of the Asylum Act that the conditions for revocation or withdrawal apply,

Section 35 may be applied mutatis mutandis to children who entered Germany before reaching the age of 18. Sentences 1 to 5 shall also apply to foreigners who are in possession of a temporary residence permit issued pursuant to Section 23 (4), unless the conditions for its withdrawal are met.

(4) A foreigner who is in possession of a temporary residence permit in accordance with this Part may otherwise be granted a permanent settlement permit if the conditions stipulated in Section 9 (2), sentence 1, are fulfilled. Section 9 (2), sentences 2 to 6 shall apply mutatis mutandis. Part 6

(1a) The subsequent immigration of dependants shall not be permitted

1. if it is established that the marriage has been entered into or kinship established solely for the purpose of enabling the subsequently immigrating persons to enter and stay in the federal territory or

2. if there are concrete indications that one of the spouses has been forced into marriage.
(2) Subsections 1a and 3, Section 9 (3), Section 9c, sentence 2, Sections 28 to 31, Section 51 (2) and (10), sentence 2, shall apply mutatis mutandis to enable the establishment and maintenance of a registered partnership in the federal territory.

The period of validity of the temporary residence permit must not exceed that of the dependant's passport or passport substitute, however. 1. spouse of a German,
2. minor, unmarried child of a German,

Section 30 (1), sentence 1, nos. 1 and 2, sentence 3 and (2), sentence 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis in the cases covered by sentence 1, no. 1.

(2) As a rule, the foreigner shall be granted a permanent settlement permit if he or she has been in possession of a temporary residence permit for three years, the family unit with the German continues to exist in the federal territory, there is no public interest in expelling the foreigner and the foreigner has a sufficient command of the German language. Section 9 (2) sentences 2 to 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis. The temporary residence permit shall otherwise be extended as long as the family unit continues to exist.

(3) Sections 31 and 34 shall apply subject to the proviso that the foreigner’s residence title shall be replaced by the ordinary residence of the German in the federal territory. The temporary residence permit granted to a parent of a minor and unmarried German national for the purpose of care and custody is to be extended after the child has come of age as long as the child lives with him or her in a family household and the child is undergoing education or training which leads to a recognised school, vocational or higher education qualification.

(4) Section 36 shall apply mutatis mutandis to other dependants.

(5) (repealed)

Section 29
Subsequent immigration of dependants to join a foreigner

(1) For the purposes of subsequent immigration to join a foreigner,
1. the foreigner must possess a permanent settlement permit, an EU long-term residence permit, a temporary residence permit or an EU Blue Card, and

2. sufficient living space must be available.

(2) The requirements of Section 5 (1), no. 1 and subsection 1, no. 2 may be waived in the case of the spouse and the minor, unmarried child of a foreigner who is in possession of a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 23 (4), Section 25 (1) or (2), a permanent settlement permit in accordance with Section 26 (3) or a permanent settlement permit in accordance with Section 26 (4) after being granted a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 25 (2) sentence 1, second alternative. In the cases covered by sentence 1, these conditions are to be waived where

1. the application for issuance of a residence title which is required in connection with the subsequent immigration of dependants is filed within three months of final recognition as a person entitled to asylum or final granting of refugee status or subsidiary protection or after the issuance of a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 23 (4) and

2. it is not possible for a foreigner and his or her dependants to live together as a family unit in a state which is not a member state of the European Union and to which the foreigner or his or her dependants have special ties.

The deadline stated in sentence 2, no. 1 shall also be deemed to be met on the foreigner filing the application on time.

(3) The temporary residence permit may only be granted to the spouse and the minor child of a foreigner who is in possession of a temporary residence permit in accordance with Sections 22, 23 (1) or (2) or Section 25 (3) or (4a), sentence 1, Section 25a (1) or Section 25b (1) for reasons of international law, on humanitarian grounds or in order to safeguard political interests of the Federal Republic of Germany. Section 26 (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis. The subsequent immigration of dependants shall not be granted in the cases covered by Section 25 (4), (4b) and (5), Section 25a (2), Section 25b (4), Section 104a (1), sentence 1, and Section 104b.

(4) By way of derogation from Section 5 (1) and Section 27 (3), the temporary residence permit shall be granted to the spouse and the minor child of a foreigner or the minor child of the foreigner’s spouse if the foreigner has been granted temporary protection in accordance with Section 24 (1) and

1. the family unit in the country of origin has been broken up as a result of the foreigner having fled said country and

2. the dependant is admitted from another member state of the European Union or is located outside of the European Union and is in need of protection.

The granting of a temporary residence permit to other dependants of a foreigner who has been granted temporary protection pursuant to Section 24 (1) shall be subject to Section 36. Section 24 shall apply to dependants who are admitted pursuant to this subsection.

(5) (repealed)

Section 30
Subsequent immigration of spouses

(1) A foreigner’s spouse shall be granted a temporary residence permit if

1. both spouses are at least 18 years of age,

2. the spouse is able to communicate in the German language at least on a basic level and

3. the foreigner

a) possesses a permanent settlement permit,
b) possesses an EU long-term residence permit,
c) possesses a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 20 or Section 25 (1) or (2),
d) has held a temporary residence permit for two years and the temporary residence permit is not subject to a subsidiary provision pursuant to Section 8 (2) or the subsequent issuance of a permanent settlement permit has not been ruled out by virtue of a rule of law,
e) is in possession of a temporary residence permit, if the marriage existed at the time of said permit being granted and the duration of the foreigner’s stay in the federal territory is expected to exceed one year,
f) possesses a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 38a and the marriage already existed in the member state of the European Union in which the foreigner has the status of a long-term resident, or
g) holds an EU Blue Card.

Sentence 1, nos. 1 and 2 shall have no bearing on issuance of the temporary residence permit where

1. the foreigner is in possession of a residence title pursuant to Sections 19 to 21 and the marriage already existed at the time when he or she established his or her main ordinary residence in the federal territory,
2. the foreigner held a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 20 immediately before a permanent settlement permit or an EU long-term residence permit was issued, or
3. the conditions specified in sentence 1, no. 3, letter f apply.

Sentence 1, no. 2 shall have no bearing on issuance of the temporary residence permit where

1. the foreigner holds a residence title pursuant to Section 23 (4), Section 25 (1) or (2), Section 26 (3) or possesses a permanent settlement permit in accordance with Section 26 (4) after being granted a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 25 (2), sentence 1, second alternative, and the marriage already existed at the time when the foreigner established his or her main ordinary residence in the federal territory,
2. the spouse is unable to provide evidence of a basic knowledge of German on account of a physical, mental or psychological illness,
3. the spouse’s need for integration is discernibly minimal within the meaning of a statutory instrument issued pursuant to Section 43 (4) or the spouse would, for other reasons, not be eligible for an integration course pursuant to Section 44 after entering the federal territory,
4. by virtue of his or her nationality, the foreigner may enter and stay in the federal territory without requiring a visa for a period of residence which does not constitute a short stay,
5. the foreigner holds an EU Blue Card or
6. the particular circumstances of the case mean that the spouse is unable to or it is unreasonable to expect the spouse to undertake efforts before entering the country to acquire a basic command of the German language.

(2) By way of derogation from subsection 1, sentence 1, no. 1, the temporary residence permit may be issued to avoid particular hardship. Where the foreigner holds a temporary residence permit, the other conditions stipulated in subsection 1, sentence 1, no. 3, letter e may be waived.

(3) By way of derogation from Section 5 (1), no. 1 and Section 29 (1), no. 2, the temporary residence permit may be extended for as long as the marital cohabitation continues.

(4) Where a foreigner is simultaneously married to several spouses and lives together with one spouse in the federal territory, no other spouse shall be granted a temporary residence permit pursuant to subsection 1 or subsection 3.

Section 31

Independent right of residence of spouses

(1) In the event of termination of marital cohabitation, the spouse’s temporary residence permit shall be extended by one year as an independent right of residence unrelated to the purpose of the subsequent immigration of dependants if

1. marital cohabitation has lawfully existed in the federal territory for at least three years or

2. the foreigner has died while marital cohabitation existed in the federal territory and the foreigner was in possession of a temporary residence permit, permanent settlement permit or EU long-term residence permit up to this point in time, unless he or she was unable to apply for an extension in time for reasons beyond his or her control. Sentence 1 shall not apply if no extension of the foreigner’s temporary residence permit is permissible or if it is not permissible to issue the foreigner with a temporary residence permit or EU long-term residence permit because this is precluded by a rule of law on account of the purpose of residence or by a subsidiary provision attaching to the temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 8 (2).

(2) The requirement stipulated in subsection 1, sentence 1, no. 1 for marital cohabitation to have existed lawfully for three years in the federal territory shall be waived if necessary to enable the spouse to continue his or her residence in order to avoid particular hardship, unless an extension of the foreigner’s temporary residence permit is not permitted. Particular hardship shall be deemed to apply if the obligation to return to the country of origin resulting from the termination of marital cohabitation threatens to substantially harm the foreigner’s legitimate interests, or if the continuation of marital cohabitation is unreasonable due to the harm to the foreigner’s legitimate interests; in particular this is to be assumed where the spouse is the victim of domestic violence. Such legitimate interests shall also include the well-being of a child living with the spouse as part of a family unit. In order to avoid abuse, extension of the temporary residence permit may be refused if the spouse is reliant on benefits in accordance with Book Two or Book Twelve of the Social Code for reasons for which he or she is responsible.

(3) By way of derogation from Section 9 (2), sentence 1, nos. 3, 5 and 6, the spouse shall also be granted a permanent settlement permit if the spouse’s subsistence is ensured after the termination of marital cohabitation by maintenance payments from the foreigner’s own funds and the foreigner possesses a permanent settlement permit or an EU long-term residence permit.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection 2, sentence 4, claiming benefits in accordance with Book Two or Book Twelve of the Social Code shall not preclude extension of the temporary residence permit. The temporary residence permit may thus be extended for a limited period for as long as the conditions for granting the permanent settlement permit or EU long-term residence permit have yet to be met.
Section 32
Subsequent immigration of children

(1) The minor, unmarried child of a foreigner shall be granted a temporary residence permit if the parents or the parent possessing the sole right of care and custody hold a temporary residence permit, an EU Blue Card, a permanent settlement permit or an EU long-term residence permit.

(2) If the minor, unmarried child is aged 16 or over and if it does not relocate the central focus of its life to Germany together with its parents or the parent possessing the sole right of care and custody, subsection 1 shall only apply if the child speaks German and appears, on the basis of his or her education and way of life to date, that he or she will be able to integrate into the way of life prevailing in the Federal Republic of Germany. The first sentence above shall not apply if

1. the foreigner possesses a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 23 (4), Section 25 (1) or (2), a permanent settlement permit in accordance with Section 26 (3) or possesses a permanent settlement permit in accordance with Section 26 (4) after being granted a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 25 (2), sentence 1, second alternative, or

2. the foreigner or his or her spouse living together as a family possess a permanent settlement permit in accordance with Section 19 or an EU Blue Card.

(3) Where parents share the right of care and custody, a temporary residence permit pursuant to subsections 1 or 2 should also be granted for the purpose of joining just one parent, if the other parent has given his or her consent to the child’s stay in Germany or if the relevant binding decision has been supplied by a competent authority.

(4) A minor, unmarried child of a foreigner may otherwise be granted a temporary residence permit necessary in order to prevent special hardship on account of the circumstances pertaining to the individual case concerned. The child’s well-being and the family situation are to be taken into consideration in this connection.

Section 33
Birth of a child in the federal territory

By way of derogation from Sections 5 and 29 (1), no. 2, a child who is born in the federal territory may be granted a temporary residence permit ex officio if one parent possesses a temporary residence permit, permanent settlement permit or EU long-term residence permit. Where both parents or the parent possessing sole right of care and custody hold a temporary residence permit, a permanent settlement permit or an EU long-term residence permit at the time of birth, the child born in the federal territory shall be granted a temporary residence permit ex officio. A child born in the federal territory whose mother or father possesses a visa or is permitted to stay in the federal territory without a visa at the time of the birth shall be permitted to stay in the federal territory until such time as the visa or the lawful period of stay without a visa expires.

Section 34
Children’s right of residence

(1) By way of derogation from Section 5 (1), no. 1 and Section 29 (1), no. 2, the temporary residence permit granted to a child shall be extended as long as a parent possessing the right of care and custody holds a temporary residence permit, permanent settlement permit or EU long-term residence permit and the child lives together with the said parent as part of a family unit, or if the child would have a right of return pursuant to Section 37 if he or she left the federal territory.

(2) Upon a child coming of age, the temporary residence permit granted to the child shall become an independent right of residence which is unrelated to the purposes of the subsequent immigration of dependants. The same shall apply in the case of the granting of a permanent settlement permit and an EU long-term residence permit or if the temporary residence permit is extended accordingly pursuant to Section 37.

(3) The temporary residence permit may be extended for as long as the conditions for granting the permanent settlement permit and the EU long-term residence permit have yet to be met.

Section 35
Children’s independent, permanent right of residence

(1) By way of derogation from Section 9 (2), a minor foreigner who possesses a temporary residence permit in accordance with this Part shall be granted a permanent settlement permit if he or she has been in possession of the temporary residence permit for five years on reaching the age of 16. The same shall apply if

1. the foreigner is of age and has been in possession of the temporary residence permit for five years,
2. he or she has a sufficient command of the German language, and
3. his or her subsistence is ensured or he or she is undergoing education or training which leads to a recognised school, vocational or higher education qualification.

(2) Periods in which the foreigner has attended school outside of the federal territory shall not normally be taken into consideration with regard to the required duration of possession of a temporary residence permit as stipulated in subsection 1.

(3) No entitlement to the granting of a permanent settlement permit pursuant to subsection 1 shall apply if

1. there is a public interest in expelling the foreigner which is based on the foreigner’s personal conduct,
2. the foreigner has been sentenced to a term of youth custody of at least six months or a prison term of at least three months or a fine of at least 90 daily rates in the past three years due to an intentionally committed offence, or if a youth prison sentence has been suspended or
3. the foreigner’s subsistence cannot be assured without claiming benefits in accordance with Book Two or Book Twelve of the Social Code or juvenile welfare pursuant to Book Eight of the Social Code, unless the foreigner is undergoing education or training which leads to a recognised school or vocational qualification.

The permanent settlement permit may be granted or the temporary residence permit extended in the cases covered by sentence 1. If, in cases covered by sentence 1, no. 2, the foreigner is placed on probation or the youth prison sentence is suspended, the temporary residence permit will generally be extended until the end of the probationary period.

(4) The requirements stipulated in subsection 1, sentence 2, nos. 2 and 3 and subsection 3, sentence 1, no. 3 shall be waived if the foreigner is unable to fulfil them on account of a physical, mental or psychological illness or handicap.

Section 36
Subsequent immigration of parents and other dependants

(1) By way of derogation from Section 5 (1), no. 1 and Section 29 (1) no. 2, a temporary residence permit shall be issued to the parents of a minor foreigner who possesses a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 23 (4), Section 25 (1) or (2), a permanent settlement permit pursuant to Section 26 (3) or who possesses a permanent settlement permit after being granted a temporary residence permit in accordance with Section 25 (2), sentence 1, second alternative, if no parent possessing the right of care and custody is resident in the federal territory.
(2) Other dependants of a foreigner may be granted a temporary residence permit for the purpose of subsequent immigration to join the foreigner, if necessary in order to avoid particular hardship. Section 30 (3) and Section 31 shall apply mutatis mutandis to adult dependants and Section 34 shall apply mutatis mutandis to minor dependants.

Part 7
Special rights of residence
Section 37
Right of return

(1) A foreigner whose ordinary residence as a minor was in the federal territory shall be granted a temporary residence permit if

1. the foreigner lawfully resided in the federal territory for eight years prior to his or her departure and attended a school in the federal territory for six years,
2. the foreigner’s subsistence is ensured by his or her own economic activity or by a maintenance commitment into which a third party has entered for a period of five years and
3. the application for the temporary residence permit is filed after reaching the age of 15 and prior to reaching the age of 21, and within five years of departure.

The temporary residence permit shall entitle the holder to pursue an economic activity.

(2) Derogation from the requirements stipulated in subsection 1, sentence 1, nos. 1 and 3 shall be possible in order to prevent particular hardship. The requirements stipulated in subsection 1, sentence 1, no. 1 may be waived if the foreigner has acquired a recognised school-leaving qualification in the federal territory.

(2a) Derogation from the requirements stipulated in subsection 1, sentence 1, nos. 1 to 3 shall be possible if the foreigner has been unlawfully forced into marriage by means of violence or threat of serious harm and has been prevented from returning to Germany, and he or she files the application for a temporary residence permit no more than three months after the coercive situation has ended and within ten years of departure. Subsection 2 shall remain unaffected.

(3) The temporary residence permit may be refused

The temporary residence permit shall entitle its holder to take up self-employment, provided the requirements referred to in Section 21 are met. Where the residence title pursuant to subsection 1 is issued for study purposes or for other educational purposes, Sections 16 and 17 shall apply mutatis mutandis. In the cases covered by Section 17, the residence title shall be issued without the approval of the Federal Employment Agency.

Chapter 3
Integration

Section 43
Integration course

(1) Foreigners living lawfully in the federal territory on a permanent basis shall be provided with support in integrating into the economic, cultural and social life of the Federal Republic of Germany and are expected to undertake commensurate integration efforts in return.

(2) Integration efforts by foreigners shall be supported by a basic package of measures to promote integration (integration course). The aim of the integration course shall be to successfully impart the German language, legal system, culture and history to foreigners. In this way, it is intended to acquaint foreigners with the way of life in the federal territory to such an extent as to enable them to act independently in all aspects of daily life, without the assistance or mediation of third parties.

(3) The integration course shall comprise a basic and advanced language course of identical duration to provide sufficient command of the language and an orientation course to impart knowledge of the legal system, culture and history in Germany. The integration course shall be coordinated and carried out by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees, which may enlist the services of private or public organisations to this end. Reasonable fees are to be charged for attending the integration course, according due consideration to the ability to pay. The person who is obliged to ensure the foreigner’s subsistence shall also be obliged to pay such a charge.

(4) The Federal Government shall be authorised to regulate further details of the integration course, in particular the basic structure, the duration, the content and implementation of the courses, the criteria relating to the selection and approval of organisations carrying out the courses and the requirements and general conditions pertaining to proper and successful participation in the courses and the appurtenant certification, including arrangement for the payment of costs, and the necessary transmission of data between the bodies involved and the processing of data by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees, which may be defined by statutory instruments issued by the Federal Ministry of the Interior without Bundesrat approval.

Section 44
Entitlement to attend an integration course

(1) A foreigner who is resident in the federal territory on a permanent basis shall be entitled to attend an integration course on one occasion

1. upon receiving a temporary residence permit for the first time

Permanent residence is generally to be assumed if the foreigner receives a temporary residence permit of at least one year’s duration or has held a temporary residence permit for more than 18 months, unless the stay is of a temporary nature.

(2) The attendance entitlement pursuant to subsection 1 shall lapse one year after granting of the residence title establishing the entitlement or upon said title lapsing. This shall not apply if the foreigner was unable to register for an integration course within that period for reasons which were beyond his or her control.

(3) The entitlement to attend an integration course shall not apply

1. to children, juveniles and young adults who take up school education or continue their previous school education in the Federal Republic of Germany,

2. when the need for integration is discernibly minimal or

3. when the foreigner already possesses a sufficient command of the German language.

In cases covered by sentence 1, no. 3, the entitlement to attend an orientation course shall remain unaffected by this proviso.

(4) A foreigner who does not possess or no longer possesses an attendance entitlement may be allowed to attend, according to the available number of places in the course concerned. This provision shall apply mutatis mutandis to German nationals who do not possess a sufficient command of the German language and have special integration needs, as well as to foreigners

1. who have permission to remain pending the asylum decision and who are expected to be permitted to remain lawfully and permanently,

2. whose deportation has been suspended pursuant to Section 60a (2), sentence 3, or

In the cases covered by sentence 1, no. 2 the foreigner shall also be obliged to attend if the institution providing basic security for job seekers requires him or her to attend. In the cases covered by sentence 1, nos. 1 and 3, where benefits are received in accordance with Book Two of the Social Code for the measures pursuant to Section 15 of Book Two of the Social Code the institution providing basic security for job seekers should, as a general rule, follow the obligation imposed by the foreigners authority. Where, in individual cases, the institution providing basic security for job seekers reaches a divergent decision, it is to notify the foreigners authority accordingly, which shall then revoke the obligation. The obligation shall be revoked where it is unreasonable to expect a foreigner to attend a part-time course in addition to pursuing an economic activity. Further, when issuing a residence title pursuant to Section 25 (1) or (2), the foreigners authorities may oblige a foreigner to take an integration course if he or she only has a basic command of the German language.

(1a) Except where the obligation is withdrawn or revoked, the obligation to duly attend an integration course pursuant to subsection 1, sentence 1, no. 1 shall expire only if the foreigner has duly attended the integration course.

(2) The obligation to attend an integration course shall not apply to foreigners

1. who are undergoing vocational training or any other form of training or education in the federal territory,
2. who furnish evidence of attendance of comparable education measures in the federal territory or
3. for whom attendance on a sustained basis is unfeasible or unreasonable.

(2a) Foreigners who hold a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 38a shall be exempted from the obligation to attend an orientation course if they are able to prove that they have already participated in integration measures in another member state of the European Union in order to attain their legal status as a long-term resident.

(3) If a foreigner fails to meet his or her attendance obligation for reasons for which he or she is responsible or fails to pass the final test, prior to extending his or her temporary residence permit the competent foreigners authority shall inform the foreigner of the possible consequences of his or her actions (Section 8 (3), Section 9 (2) nos. 7 and 8, Section 9a (2), first sentence, nos. 3 and 4, of this Act, Section 10 (3) of the Nationality Act). The foreigners authority may take administrative enforcement measures in order to enjoin the foreigner to meet his or her obligation to attend. In case of non-compliance with the obligation to attend, the prospective charge to cover costs may also be levied in advance in a single sum by issuing an official notice of fees.

Section 45
Integration programme

The integration course should be complemented by additional integration measures organised by the Federation and the Länder, in particular social education and migration-specific counselling services. The Federal Ministry of the Interior or the body appointed by the said Ministry shall develop a nationwide integration programme which, in particular, shall identify the existing integration measures for foreigners and ethnic German resettlers which are available from the Federation, Länder, local government authorities and private organisations and make recommendations on the further development of the integration measures. The Länder, local government authorities, the commissioners of the Federal government, Länder and local government authorities for issues relating to foreigners and the Federal Government Commissioner for Matters Related to Ethnic German Resettlers shall be involved in the development of the nationwide integration programme and in compiling informational materials on existing integration measures. Religious communities, trade unions, employers’ associations, voluntary welfare organisations and other social interest groups should also be involved.

Section 45a
Job-related language training; authorisation to issue statutory instruments
(1) Integration into the labour market may be promoted by means of job-related language training courses. As a rule these courses build upon the general language training provided in the context of integration courses. Job-related language training shall be coordinated and conducted by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees. The Federal Office for Migration and Refugees shall commission private or public institutions to run the job-related language training courses.

(2) Foreigners shall be obliged to participate in a job-related language training course if they are drawing benefits pursuant to Book Two of the Social Code and participation in the course is included in an integration agreement pursuant to Book Two of the Social Code. Labour market integration benefits pursuant to Book Two of the Social Code and active job promotion benefits pursuant to Book Three of the Social Code shall remain unaffected. Participation in job-related language training shall be ruled out for foreigners who have permission to remain pending the asylum decision pursuant to the Asylum Act and who are not expected to be given permission to remain lawfully and permanently. It shall be assumed that asylum seekers originating from a safe country of origin pursuant to Section 29a of the Asylum Act will not be given permission to remain lawfully and permanently.

(3) The Federal Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs shall be authorised, by way of a statutory instrument not requiring the consent of the Bundesrat, and in consultation with the Federal Ministry of the Interior, to regulate further details of the job-related language training, in particular the basic structure, the target groups, the duration, the content and implementation of the courses, the criteria relating to the selection and approval of institutions running the courses, and the requirements and general conditions pertaining to access to and proper and successful participation in the courses, including the final certificates and arrangements for the payment of costs, and the necessary transmission of data between the bodies involved and the processing of data by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees in accordance with Section 88a (3).

Chapter 4
Administrative provisions

Section 46
Administrative orders

(1) The foreigners authority may undertake measures to facilitate the departure of a foreigner who is enforceably required to leave the federal territory; in particular, it may oblige the foreigner to take up his or her residence at a place of its designation.

(2) A foreigner may be prohibited from leaving the federal territory in appropriate application of Section 10 (1) and (2) of the Passport Act. A foreigner may otherwise be prohibited from leaving the federal territory only if he or she intends to enter another state without being in possession of the necessary documents and permits. The prohibition of departure shall be lifted as soon as the reason for its imposition ceases to apply.

Section 47
Prohibition and restriction of political activities

(1) Foreigners may pursue political activities within the bounds of the prevailing general statutory provisions. A foreigner’s political activities may be restricted or prohibited if they

1. impair or endanger the development of informed political opinion in the Federal Republic of Germany, the peaceful co-existence of Germans and foreigners or of different groups of foreigners in the federal territory, public safety and law and order or any other substantial interests of the Federal Republic of Germany,

2. may be counter to the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany in the field of foreign policy or to the obligations of the Federal Republic of Germany under international law,
3. contravene the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany, particularly in connection with the use of violence,

4. are intended to promote parties, other organisations, establishments or activities outside of the federal territory whose aims or means are incompatible with the fundamental values of a system of government which respects human dignity.

(2) A foreigner's political activities shall be prohibited if they

1. endanger the free and democratic constitutional system or the security of the Federal Republic of Germany or contravene the codified standards of international law,

2. publicly support, advocate or incite the use of violence as a means of enforcing political, religious or other interests or are capable of inciting such violence or

3. support organisations, political movements or groups within or outside of the federal territory which have initiated, advocated or threatened attacks on persons or objects in the federal territory or attacks on Germans or German establishments outside of the federal territory.

Section 48
Obligations relating to identification papers

(1) On request, a foreigner shall be obliged to present and surrender

1. his or her passport, passport substitute or substitute identity document and

2. his or her residence title or a document confirming suspension of deportation to the authorities entrusted with enforcing the law on foreigners and to leave such documents with the said authorities for a temporary period, where necessary in order to implement or safeguard measures in accordance with this Act.

(2) In the case of a foreigner who neither possesses a passport or passport substitute nor can reasonably be expected to obtain one, it shall be sufficient for the purposes of the obligation to have and present identification papers to carry the certificate confirming a residence title or the suspension of deportation, provided that such document contains the foreigner's personal details and a photograph and is marked to indicate that it is a substitute identity document.

(3) If the foreigner does not possess a valid passport or passport substitute, he or she shall be obliged to cooperate in efforts to obtain the identity paper and to present, surrender to and leave with the authorities entrusted with enforcing this Act all such documents, other papers and data carriers as may be of importance in establishing his or her identity and nationality and in establishing a possibility of returning him or her to another state and duly enforcing such a return. If the foreigner fails to meet his or her obligation and if actual indications exist that he or she is in possession of such documents or data carriers, he or she and the objects on his or her person may be searched. The foreigner shall be required to tolerate this measure.

(3a) Analysis of the data carriers shall be permissible only insofar as this is necessary to establish the foreigner's identity and nationality and to ascertain and assert the possibility of his or her return to another state in accordance with the provisions of subsection 3 and the purpose of the measure cannot be achieved by more lenient means. Where there are concrete indications to justify the assumption that analysing data carriers would provide only insights into the core area of private life, the measure shall not be permissible. The foreigner must provide the access data required for the permissible analysis of data carriers. The data carriers may be analysed only by employees who are qualified to hold judicial office. Insights into the core area of private life which are acquired in the course of analysing data carriers may not be utilised. Records thereof shall be deleted immediately. A written record shall be made of the fact of their acquisition and deletion. Where personal data acquired in the course of analysing data carriers are no longer necessary for the purposes set out in sentence 1, they shall be deleted immediately.

(4) Where the passport obligation (Section 3 (1)) is waived pursuant to Section 5 (3) or Section 33, a substitute identity document shall be issued. Subsection 3 shall remain unaffected.

Section 48a
Collection of access data

(1) Where the foreigner does not provide the access data needed to analyse devices used for telecommunications purposes, the commercial providers of telecommunication services or those involved in the provision of such services may be required, where the statutory conditions for the use of the data are met, to provide information about the data by means of which access to devices or to storage devices located in these devices or spatially separately therefrom are protected (Section 113 (1), sentence 2, of the Telecommunications Act).

(2) The foreigner must first be informed about the request for information.

(3) On the basis of a request for information pursuant to subsection 1, the commercial providers of telecommunication services or those involved in the provision of such services shall immediately transmit the data required in the provision of the information. Section 23 (1) of the Judicial Remuneration and Compensation Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to compensation paid to service providers.

Section 49
Verification, establishment and documentation of identity

(1) Subject to the conditions stipulated in Section 48 (1), the authorities entrusted with enforcing this Act may read out the biometric and other data stored on the electronic storage and processing medium of a document pursuant to Section 48 (1), nos. 1 and 2, obtain the required biometric data from the holder of the document and compare the biometric data. All other authorities to which data are transmitted from the Central Register of Foreigners pursuant to Sections 15 to 20 of the Act on the Central Register of Foreigners and the registration authorities shall also be authorised to undertake measures pursuant to sentence 1, insofar as they are permitted to verify the authenticity of the document or the holder’s identity. Biometric data within the meaning of sentence 1 shall comprise only the fingerprints and the photograph.

(2) On request, every foreigner shall be obliged to furnish the authorities entrusted with enforcing the law concerning foreigners with information on his or her age, identity and nationality and to submit such declarations in connection with the procurement of return travel documents as are required by the diplomatic mission of the state whose nationality he or she possesses or putatively possesses and are in line with German law.

(3) In case of doubt regarding the foreigner’s identity, age or nationality, the measures necessary in order to establish his or her identity, age or nationality shall be undertaken

1. if the foreigner is to be granted entry or a residence title or his or her deportation is to be suspended or

2. if necessary in order to implement other measures in accordance with this Act.

(4) The foreigner’s identity shall be verified by means of identification measures when allocation is carried out in accordance with Section 15a.

(5) The necessary measures should be undertaken in order to establish and document the foreigner’s identity

1. if the foreigner intends to enter or has entered the federal territory with a forged passport or falsified passport or passport substitute;
2. if there are other reasons to believe that the foreigner is intending to re-enter the federal territory unlawfully, following refused entry or the termination of a stay in the federal territory;
3. in the case of foreigners who are enforceably required to leave the federal territory, insofar as removal or deportation come into consideration;
4. if the foreigner is to be refused entry and returned to a safe third country, or if he or she is to be removed to such country as specified in Section 26a (2) of the Asylum Act;
5. in the case of an application for a national visa;
6. when temporary protection is granted in accordance with Section 24 and in the cases covered by Sections 23 and 29 (3);
7. if a reason for refusal pursuant to Section 5 (4) has been established.

(6) Measures within the meaning of subsections 3 to 5, with the exception of subsection 5, no. 5, are the taking of photographs and fingerprints, the taking of measurements and similar measures, including bodily intrusions undertaken by a doctor in accordance with prevailing medical standards in order to establish the foreigner’s age, provided that no ill effect on the latter’s health is to be feared. The measures shall be permissible on foreigners aged 14 or over; any doubts as to whether the foreigner has reached 14 years of age shall be to the detriment of the foreigner. These measures shall only be permissible for the purpose of establishing the foreigner’s identity if the identity cannot be established by other means, in particular via inquiries to other authorities, or if the identity cannot be established in time by such other means or if such other means would involve substantial difficulties.

(6a) Measures within the meaning of subsection 5, no. 5 are the taking of photographs and fingerprints.

(7) In order to determine the foreigner’s state of origin or region of origin, the foreigner’s spoken word may be recorded on audio and data media. Such recordings may only be made if the foreigner is informed beforehand.

(8) The identity of a foreigner who is intercepted in conjunction with unlawful entry and is not refused entry, is to be verified by means of identification measures. In accordance with sentence 1, only photographs and prints of all ten fingers may be taken. The identity of a foreigner below the age of 14 shall be verified under the conditions of sentence 1 only by taking a photograph.

(9) The identity of a foreigner who is residing in the federal territory without the requisite residence title is to be verified by means of identification measures. In accordance with sentence 1, only photographs and prints of all ten fingers may be taken. The identity of a foreigner below the age of 14 shall be verified under the conditions of sentence 1 only by taking a photograph.

(10) The foreigner shall be required to tolerate the measures pursuant to subsections 1 and 3 to 9.

Section 49a

Database for found documents

(1) The Federal Office of Administration shall keep a database in which information shall be stored on identity documents issued by foreign public bodies and belonging to nationals of the states specified in Enclosure I to Regulation (EC) no. 539/2001 (Official EU Journal no. L 81, p. 1) which are found in Germany (database for found documents). Such storage shall serve to establish a foreigner’s identity or nationality and to enable the subsequent return of foreigners.

(2) Upon a public body coming into possession of a found document pursuant to subsection 1, said body shall forward the document to the Federal Office of Administration immediately after a period of seven days has elapsed, unless
1. it obtains knowledge of a notice of loss submitted by the holder or
2. it determines beyond doubt the holder’s place of residence in Germany or
3. the found document is required for the purposes of criminal proceedings or as evidence in other proceedings.

In cases covered by sentence 1, no. 3 the public body shall transfer the items of information stipulated in Section 49b, nos. 1 to 3 which are contained in the found document to the Federal Office of Administration for entry in the database for found documents.

Section 49b

Chapter 5

Termination of stay

Part 1

Grounds establishing the requirement to leave the federal territory

Section 50

Requirement to leave the federal territory
(1) A foreigner shall be obliged to leave the federal territory if he or she does not possess or no longer possesses the necessary residence title and a right of residence does not exist or no longer exists under the EEC/Turkey Association Agreement.
(2) The foreigner shall be required to leave the federal territory without delay or, if a period has been allowed for departure, by the end of this period.
(2a) (repealed)
(3) The foreigner may meet his or her obligation to leave the federal territory by entering another member state of the European Union or another Schengen state only if his or her entry into and residence in such state is permitted. If this is the case, the foreigner who is obliged to leave the federal territory is to be required to proceed to the territory of such state without delay.
(4) A foreigner who is required to leave the federal territory and who intends to change his or her address or to leave the district covered by the foreigners authority for more than three days shall be required to notify the foreigners authority accordingly beforehand.
(5) The passport or passport substitute of a foreigner who is required to leave the federal territory should be taken into custody until the time of his or her departure.
(6) For the purpose of terminating residence of a foreigner, the police may use their search tools for wanted persons in order to determine the foreigner’s whereabouts and to apprehend him or her, if his or her whereabouts are not known. A foreigner against whom a ban on entry and residence has been imposed in accordance with Section 11 may be reported for the purposes of refusal of entry and, in the event of his or her being found in the federal territory, for the purposes of his or her apprehension. Section 66 of the Asylum Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to foreigners who have been allocated in accordance with Section 15a.

Section 51
Termination of lawful residence; continued validity of restrictions
(1) The residence title shall expire in the following cases:
1. upon expiry of its period of validity,
2. upon the occurrence of an invalidating condition,
3. upon withdrawal of the residence title,
4. upon revocation of the residence title,
5. upon expulsion of the foreigner,
5a. upon announcement of a deportation order pursuant to Section 58a,
6. if the foreigner leaves the federal territory for a reason which is not of a temporary nature,
7. if the foreigner leaves the federal territory and fails to re-enter the federal territory within six months or within a longer period set by the foreigners authority,
8. if a foreigner files an application for asylum following the granting of a residence title pursuant to Sections 22, 23 or 25 (3) to (5); a visa issued for several entries or with a period of validity in excess of 90 days shall not expire in accordance with numbers 6 and 7 above.
(2) The permanent settlement permit of a foreigner who has lawfully resided in the federal territory for at least 15 years and the permanent settlement permit of his or her cohabiting spouse shall not expire in accordance with subsection 1, nos. 6 and 7, if the aforementioned person’s subsistence is assured and there is no public interest in expelling the foreigner pursuant to Section 54 (1), nos. 2 to 5 or (2), nos. 5 to 7. The permanent settlement permit of a foreigner cohabiting with a German as his or her spouse shall not expire pursuant to subsection 1, nos. 6 and 7 if there is no public interest in expelling the foreigner pursuant to Section 54 (1) nos. 2 to 5 or (2) nos. 5 to 7. On request, the foreigners authority at the place in which the foreigner was last ordinarily resident shall issue a certificate confirming the continued validity of the permanent settlement permit.

(3) The residence title shall not expire in accordance with subsection 1, no. 7, if the specified period is exceeded solely on account of the foreigner carrying out compulsory military service in his or her native country and the foreigner re-enters the federal territory within three months of discharge from said military service.

(4) A longer period will generally be granted pursuant to subsection 1, no. 7 if the foreigner intends to leave the federal territory for reasons of a temporary nature and is in possession of a permanent settlement permit, or if the stay outside of the federal territory serves the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany. By derogation from subsection 1, nos. 6 and 7, the residence title of a foreigner shall not expire if he or she meets the requirements stipulated in Section 37 (1) sentence 1, no. 1, if the foreigner has been unlawfully forced into marriage by means of violence or threat of serious harm and has been prevented from returning to Germany, and he or she re-enters the federal territory within three months after the coercive situation has ended and at the latest within ten years of departure.

(5) The exemption from the requirement for the residence title shall not apply if the foreigner is expelled, removed or deported; Section 11 (2) to (5) shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(6) Geographic and other restrictions and conditions under this Act and other acts shall remain in force after expiry of the residence title or the suspension of deportation until they are lifted or the foreigner meets his obligation to leave the federal territory.

(7) If a person entitled to asylum or a foreigner whom the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees has incontestably granted refugee status leaves the federal territory, the residence title shall not expire as long as he or she is in possession of a valid travel document for refugees issued by a German authority. The foreigner shall have no entitlement to the renewed issuance of a residence title on the basis of his recognition as a person entitled to asylum or by virtue of having been incontestably granted refugee status by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees, if he or she has left the federal territory and the competence for issuing a travel document has passed to another state.

(8) Prior to revocation of a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 38a (1), prior to the expulsion of a foreigner who holds such a temporary residence permit and prior to issuing a deportation order against a foreigner pursuant to Section 58a, the competent authority in the proceedings pursuant to Section 91c (2) shall, through the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees, afford the member state of the European Union in which the foreigner holds the legal status of a long-term resident an opportunity to submit an opinion, if deportation to an area in which this legal status cannot be acquired is under consideration. The opinion shall be considered by the competent authority if it is received from the other member state in sufficient time.

(8a) Insofar as the authorities of other Schengen states are to be notified about decisions pursuant to Article 34 of Regulation (EC) no. 810/2009 which have been taken by the foreigners authorities, this shall be done via the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees. The authorities charged with policing cross-border traffic shall notify the authorities of other Schengen states immediately about their decisions pursuant to Article 34 of Regulation (EC) no. 810/2009.

(9) The EU long-term residence permit shall expire only if

1. the permitted is revoked on account of fraudulent misrepresentation, threats or bribery,
2. the foreigner is expelled or is served with a deportation order pursuant Section 58a,
3. the foreigner is resident for a period of twelve consecutive months outside of the area in which the legal status of a long-term resident can be acquired; the period shall be 24 consecutive months for a foreigner previously holding an EU Blue Card and for his or her dependants who previously held a temporary residence permit pursuant to Sections 30, 32, 33 or 36.

4. the foreigner remains outside of the federal territory for a period of six years or
5. the foreigner acquires the legal status of a long-term resident in another member state of the European Union.

Subsections 2 to 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the cases specified in sentence 1, nos. 3 and 4.

(10) By way of derogation from subsection 1, no. 7, the period for the EU Blue Card and the temporary residence permits pursuant to Sections 30, 32, 33 or 36 issued to dependants of EU Blue Card holders shall be twelve months. The same shall apply to the permanent settlement permit of a foreigner who has been residing lawfully in the federal territory for at least 15 years as well as to the permanent settlement permit of a spouse cohabiting with the foreigner if he or she is 60 years of age or older.

Section 52
Revocation

(1) Save in the cases covered by subsections 2 to 6, a foreigner’s residence title pursuant to Section 4 (1), sentence 2, no. 1, second alternative, and nos. 2, 3 and 4 can only be revoked if

1. he or she no longer possesses a valid passport or passport substitute,
2. he or she changes or loses his or her nationality,
3. he or she has not yet entered the federal territory,
4. his or her recognition as a person entitled to asylum or his or her status as a refugee or as a person entitled to subsidiary protection lapses or becomes null and void, or
5. the foreigners authority establishes, after issuance of a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 25 (3), sentence 1, that
   a) the conditions pursuant to Section 60 (5) or (7) are not or no longer met,
   b) the foreigner fulfils one of the grounds for exclusion pursuant to Section 25 (3), sentence 2, nos. 1 to 4, or,
   c) in the cases covered by Section 42, sentence 1 of the Asylum Act, the assessment is revoked or becomes null and void.

In the cases covered by sentence 1, nos. 4 and 5, the residence title of the dependants living together with the foreigner as a family unit may also be revoked, if these have no independent entitlement to the residence title.

(2) A national visa, a temporary residence permit or an EU Blue Card which have been granted for the purpose of employment shall be revoked if the Federal Employment Agency revokes the approval of employment pursuant to Section 41. In the case of sentence 1, a national visa or a temporary residence permit which have not been granted for the purpose of employment shall be revoked to the extent to which they permit the employment concerned.

(3) A temporary residence permit issued for study purposes pursuant to Section 16 (1) may be revoked, if

1. the foreigner pursues an economic activity without the necessary permit,
2. the foreigner fails to make adequate progress with his or her studies, taking into account the average length of study for the course of study at the higher education establishment concerned and his or her individual situation, or
3. the foreigner no longer meets the conditions under which he or she could be granted a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 16 (1) or (6).

(4) A temporary residence permit issued pursuant to Section 20 may be revoked, if
1. the research establishment with which the foreigner has concluded an admission agreement loses its recognised status, where the foreigner has been involved in an action which has led to the loss of such status,
2. the foreigner no longer conducts research or is no longer permitted to conduct research at the research establishment or
3. the foreigner no longer meets the conditions under which he or she could be granted a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 20 or under which it would be permissible to conclude an admission agreement with him or her.

(5) A temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 1, or (4b), sentence 1, should be revoked, if
1. the foreigner was not or is no longer prepared to testify in the criminal proceedings,
2. the information provided by the foreigner referred to in Section 25 (4a), sentence 2, no. 1 or (4b), sentence 2, no.1 is considered by the public prosecutor’s office or the criminal court to be in all reasonable probability false or
3. the foreigner no longer meets the conditions for issuance of a residence title pursuant to Section 25 (4a) or (4b) on account of other circumstances.

A temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 1 should also be revoked if the foreigner has voluntarily re-established contact with the persons pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 2, no. 2.

(6) A temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 38a should be revoked if the foreigner loses his or her legal status as a long-term resident in another member state of the European Union.

(7) (repealed)

Section 53
Expulsion

(1) A foreigner whose stay endangers public safety and law and order, the free democratic basic order or other significant interests of the Federal Republic of Germany shall be expelled if the balancing of the interests in the foreigner’s departure with the foreigner’s individual interests in remaining in the federal territory which is to be conducted taking account of all the circumstances of the particular case results in the public interest in the foreigner leaving overriding.

(2) When balancing the interests pursuant to subsection 1 in accordance with the circumstances of particular case, consideration shall in particular be given to the length of the foreigner’s stay, his or her personal, economic and other ties in the federal territory and in the country of origin or in another state prepared to receive him or her, the consequences of expulsion for his or her dependants and domestic partner, as well as whether the foreigner has abided with the law.

(3) A foreigner who has been recognised as entitled to asylum, who enjoys the legal status of a foreign refugee, who possesses a travel document issued by an authority in the Federal Republic of Germany in accordance with the Agreement of 28 July 1951 on the Legal Status of Refugees (Federal Law Gazette 1953 II p. 559), who is entitled to a right of residence in accordance with the EEC/Turkey Association Agreement or who possesses an EU long-term residence permit may be expelled only if the personal conduct of the person concerned currently represents a serious threat to public safety and law and order which affects a fundamental interest of society and the expulsion is essential to protect that interest.

(4) A foreigner who has filed an application for asylum may be expelled only under the condition that the asylum procedure has been concluded by incontestable decision without the foreigner being given recognition as a person entitled to asylum or without recognition of entitlement to international protection (Section 1 (1) no. 2 of the Asylum Act). The condition shall be waived if

1. there are facts justifying an expulsion pursuant to subsection 3 or
2. a deportation warning issued in accordance with the provisions of the Asylum Act has become enforceable.

Section 54
Interest in expulsion

(1) There shall be a particularly serious public interest in expelling the foreigner (Ausweisungsinteresse) within the meaning of Section 53 (1) where the foreigner

1. has been incontestably sentenced to a prison term or a term of youth custody of at least two years for one or more intentionally committed offences or preventive detention has been ordered in connection with the most recent incontestable conviction,

1a has been incontestably sentenced to a prison term or a term of youth custody of at least one year for one or more intentionally committed offences against life, physical integrity, sexual self-determination or property or for resisting enforcement officers if the criminal offence was committed using violence, using a threat of danger to life or limb, or with guile; there shall be a particularly serious interest in expulsion in the case of the commission of serial offences against property even if the perpetrator did not use violence, threats or guile,

2. threatens the free democratic basic order or the security of the Federal Republic of Germany; this shall be assumed to be the case where facts justify the conclusion that the foreigner is or has been a member of an organisation which supports terrorism or he or she supports or has supported such an organisation or he or she is, in accordance with Section 89a (2) of the Criminal Code, preparing or has prepared a serious violent offence endangering the state described in Section 89a (1) of the Criminal Code, unless the foreigner recognisably and credibly distances himself or herself from the activity which endangers the state,

3. was one of the leaders of an organisation which was incontestably banned because its purposes or its activity contravenes criminal law or it is directed against the constitutional order or the concept of international understanding,

4. is involved in violent activities in the pursuit of political or religious objectives or calls publicly for the use of violence or threatens the use of violence or

5. incites others to hatred against sections of the population; this shall be assumed to be the case where he or she exerts a targeted and permanent influence on other persons in order to incite or increase hatred against members of certain ethnic groups or religions, or he or she publicly, in a meeting or by disseminating writings in a manner which is suited to disturbing public safety and law and order,

a) incites others to undertake arbitrary measures against sections of the population,
b) maliciously disparages sections of the population and thus attacks the human dignity of others or
c) endorses or promotes crimes against peace, against humanity, war crimes or acts of terrorism of comparable severity, unless the foreigner recognisably and credibly distances himself or herself from his or her actions.

(2) There shall be a serious interest in expelling the foreigner within the meaning of Section 53 (1) where the foreigner

1. has been incontestably sentenced to a prison term of at least one year for one or more intentionally committed offences,

1a. has been incontestably sentenced to a prison term or a term of youth custody for one or more intentionally committed offences against life, physical integrity, sexual self-determination or property or for resisting enforcement officers if the criminal offence was committed using violence, using a threat of danger to life or limb, or with guile; the interest in expulsion shall be serious in the case of the commission of serial offences against property even if the perpetrator did not use violence, threats or guile,

2. has been incontestably sentenced to youth custody for at least one year for one or more intentionally committed offences and enforcement of the penalty has not been suspended on probation,

3. has committed or attempted to commit, as a perpetrator or participant, the offence under Section 29 (1), sentence 1, no. 1 of the Narcotics Act,

4. uses heroin, cocaine or a comparably dangerous narcotic and is not prepared to undergo the necessary treatment which serves his or her rehabilitation or he or she evades such treatment,

5. prevents another person from participating in life in the Federal Republic of Germany on an economic, cultural or social level by reprehensible means, in particular through the use or threat of violence,

6. forces or attempts to force another person into entering into marriage,

7. he or she, in the course of an interview which serves to clarify reservations against entry or continued residence, fails to reveal to the German diplomatic mission abroad or to the foreigners authority previous stays in Germany or other states, or intentionally furnishes no, false or incomplete information on key points regarding links with persons or organisations suspected of supporting terrorism or threatening the free, democratic order or security of the Federal Republic of Germany; expulsion on this basis shall be permissible only if the foreigner is expressly informed prior to the interview of the security-related purpose of the interview and the legal consequences of refusing to furnish information or of furnishing false or incomplete information,

8. in the course of an administrative procedure which was conducted by the authorities of a Schengen state in Germany or abroad

a) has furnished false or incomplete information in order to obtain a German residence title, a Schengen visa, an airport transit visa, a passport substitute, eligibility for exemption from the passport obligation or the suspension of deportation or

b) notwithstanding a legal obligation, has failed to cooperate in measures undertaken by the authorities responsible for implementing this Act or the Convention Implementing the Schengen Agreement, provided that the foreigner was informed beforehand of the legal consequences of such action or

9. has committed a not only isolated or minor breach of legal provisions, court rulings or orders, excepting isolated or minor breaches, or has committed an offence outside of the federal territory which is to be regarded as an intentionally committed serious offence in the federal territory.

Section 55
Interest in remaining

(1) There shall be a particularly serious individual interest in remaining in the federal territory (Bleibeinteresse) within the meaning of Section 53 (1) where the foreigner

1. possesses a permanent settlement permit and has lawfully resided in the federal territory for at least five years,

2. possesses a temporary residence permit and was born in the federal territory or entered the federal territory as a minor and has lawfully resided in the federal territory for at least five years,

3. possesses a temporary residence permit, has lawfully resided in the federal territory for at least five years and cohabits with a foreigner as designated in nos. 1 and 2 as a spouse or in a registered partnership,

4. cohabits with a German dependant or domestic partner in a family unit or a registered partnership, exercises his or her rights of care and custody for a minor, unmarried German or exercises his or her right of access to that minor,

5. enjoys the legal status of foreigner entitled to subsidiary protection within the meaning of Section 4 (1) of the Asylum Act or

6. possesses a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 23 (4), Sections 24, 25 (4a), sentence 3, or pursuant to Section 29 (2) or (4).

(2) There shall, in particular, be a serious individual interest in remaining within the meaning of Section 53 (1) where

1. the foreigner is a minor and possesses a temporary residence permit,

2. the foreigner possesses a temporary residence permit and has resided in the federal territory for at least five years,

3. the foreigner exercises his or her rights of care and custody for an unmarried minor staying lawfully in the federal territory or exercises his or her right of access to that minor,

4. the foreigner is a minor and his or her parents or parent holding rights of care and custody are or is residing lawfully in the federal territory,

5. consideration is to be given to the interests or the well-being of a child or

6. the foreigner possesses a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 1.

(3) Stays on the basis of Section 81 (3), sentence 1, and (4), sentence 1, shall be considered as lawful stays within the meaning of subsections 1 and 2 only if the application for issuance or extension of the residence title was granted.

Section 56
Monitoring for internal security reasons of foreigners subject to expulsion orders
(1) A foreigner who has received an expulsion order on the ground of an interest in expulsion pursuant to Section 54 (1) nos. 2 to 5 or a deportation order pursuant to Section 58a shall be obliged to report to the police office which is responsible for his or her place of residence at least once a week, unless the foreigners authority stipulates otherwise. If a foreigner is enforceably required to leave the federal territory for reasons other than the interests in expulsion referred to in sentence 1, an obligation to report to the police authorities corresponding to sentence 1 may be imposed if necessary in order to avert a danger to public safety and law and order.

(2) His or her residence shall be restricted to the district of the foreigners authority concerned, unless the foreigners authority stipulates otherwise.

(3) He or she may be obliged to live in a different place of residence or in certain types of accommodation outside of the district of the foreigners authority concerned, if this appears expedient in order to hinder or prevent activities which have led to the expulsion order and to facilitate monitoring of compliance with provisions under the law governing organisations and associations or other statutory conditions and obligations.

(4) In order to hinder or prevent activities which have led to the expulsion order pursuant to Section 54 (1) nos. 2 to 5 or to a deportation order pursuant to Section 58a, the foreigner may also be obliged not to make contact with specific persons or persons in a specific group, not to keep company with them, not to employ them, train or house them and to refrain from using certain means of communication or communication services, insofar as means of communication remain at his or her disposal and the restrictions are necessary in order to avert a significant risk to internal security or to the life and limb of third parties.

(5) The obligations in accordance with subsections 1 to 4 shall be suspended if the foreigner is in custody. An order in accordance with subsections 3 and 4 shall be immediately enforceable.

Part 2
Enforcement of the obligation to leave the federal territory

Section 57
Removal

(1) A foreigner who is intercepted in conjunction with unlawful entry into the federal territory across a border within the meaning of Article 2 no. 2 of Regulation (EC) no. 562/2006 (external border) shall be removed from the federal territory.

(2) A foreigner who is enforceably required to leave the federal territory, who will be readmitted by another member state of the European Union or Norway or Switzerland under the terms of an intergovernmental admission agreement applicable on 13 January 2009 should be removed to that state; the same shall apply if the foreigner is intercepted by the border authority in the vicinity of the border in close chronological proximity to unlawful entry into the federal territory and there are indications that another state is responsible for conducting an asylum procedure by virtue of legislation of the European Union or of an international treaty, and an admission or readmission process is initiated.

(3) Section (58) (1b), Section 59 (8), Section 60 (1) to (5) and (7) to (9) and Sections 62 and 62a shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 58
Deportation

(1) The foreigner shall be deported if the requirement to leave the federal territory is enforceable, no period has been allowed for departure or a granted period has expired, and voluntary fulfilment of the obligation to leave is not assured or supervision of departure appears necessary on grounds of public security and law and order. If one of the conditions stipulated in Section 59 (1), sentence 2 becomes applicable within the period allowed for departure, the foreigner shall be deported before its expiry.

(1a) Prior to the deportation of an unaccompanied foreign minor, the authority must ensure that in the state to which he or she is to be returned he or she will be handed over to a member of his or her family, to a person possessing the right of care and custody or to an appropriate reception centre.

(1b) Foreigners holding an EU long-term residence permit or a corresponding legal status in another member state of the European Union and who are eligible for international protection in another member state of the European Union may only be deported to the state granting protection, except in the cases covered by Section 60 (8), sentence 1. Section 60 (2), (3), (5) and (7) shall remain unaffected.

(2) The requirement to leave the federal territory shall be enforceable if the foreigner

1. has entered the federal territory unlawfully,
2. has not yet applied for initial granting of the necessary residence title or has not yet applied for an extension or, despite an application having been submitted, the residence is not deemed to be permitted pursuant to Section 81 (3) or the residence title is not deemed to remain in force pursuant to Section 81 (4) or
3. becomes obliged to leave the federal territory by virtue of a ruling on his or her return reached by another member state of the European Union pursuant to Article 3 of Council Directive 2001/40/EC of 28 May 2001 on the mutual recognition of decisions on the expulsion of third country nationals (Official EC Journal no. L 149, p. 34), provided that the ruling concerned is recognised by the competent authority.

The obligation to leave the federal territory shall otherwise become enforceable only when the refusal of the residence title or another administrative act by which the foreigner shall be required to leave pursuant to Section 50 (1) takes effect.

(3) Supervision of deportation is necessary in particular if the foreigner

1. is, by virtue of a judicial order, in detention or another form of public custody,
2. has failed to leave the federal territory within the period granted for departure,
3. has been expelled on the ground of a particularly serious interest in expulsion pursuant to Section 54 (1) in conjunction with Section 53,
4. is destitute,
5. does not possess a passport or passport substitute,
6. has furnished the foreigners authority with incorrect information or refused to furnish information with intent to deceive or
7. has indicated that he or she will not meet his or her obligation to leave the federal territory.

Section 58a
Deportation order

(1) The supreme Land authority may issue a deportation order for a foreigner without a prior expulsion order based on the assessment of facts, in order to avert a special danger to the security of the Federal Republic of Germany or a terrorist threat. The deportation order shall be immediately enforceable; no notice of intention to deport shall be necessary.

(2) The Federal Ministry of the Interior may assume responsibility if a special interest on the part of the Federation applies. The supreme Land authority is to be notified accordingly. Deportation orders issued by the Federation shall be enforced by the Federal Police.

(3) A deportation order may not be enforced if the conditions pertaining to a deportation ban pursuant to Section 60 (1) to (8) apply. Section 59 (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis. Assessment in this context shall be carried out by the authority deciding on the deportation order; this authority shall not be bound to findings reached in this connection in other proceedings.
(4) Following announcement of the deportation order, the foreigner is to be given an opportunity to establish contact with a legal adviser of his or her choice without delay, unless he or she has secured the services of a lawyer beforehand; the foreigner is to be informed of this entitlement, of the legal consequences of the deportation order and the available legal remedies. An application for temporary relief pursuant to the Code of Administrative Courts Procedure shall be filed within seven days of announcement of the deportation order. Deportation may not be enforced until expiry of the period in accordance with sentence 2 and, if an application for temporary relief is filed in time, until the time of the court’s decision on said application.

Section 59

Deportation warning

(1) Notice of intention to deport a foreigner shall be served specifying a reasonable period of between seven and 30 days for voluntary departure. By way of exception, a shorter period may be set or the granting of such a period may be waived altogether if, in individual cases, it is vital to safeguard overriding public interests, in particular where

1. a well-founded suspicion exists that the foreigner intends to evade deportation,
2. the foreigner poses a serious danger to public safety or law and order.

Under the conditions stipulated in sentence 2, the serving of notice of intention to deport may also be waived if

1. the residence title pursuant to Section 51 (1), nos. 3 to 5 has expired or
2. the foreigner has already been informed in accordance with the requirements of Section 77 of the existence of his or her obligation to leave the federal territory.

Taking account of the particular circumstances of each case, the period allowed for departure may be extended as reasonable or a longer such period may be set. Section 60a (2) shall remain unaffected. If the obligation to leave or the notice of intention to deport ceases to be enforceable, the period allowed for departure shall be interrupted and shall begin to run again when the obligation or notice becomes enforceable once more. No renewed setting of a period shall be required. Upon expiry of the period allowed for voluntary departure, the foreigner must not be informed of the date of the deportation.

(2) The notice of intention to deport should specify the state to which the foreigner is to be deported and should inform the foreigner that he or she may also be deported to another state which he or she is permitted to enter or which is obliged to admit him or her.

(3) The existence of deportation bans and grounds for the temporary suspension of deportation shall not preclude issuance of the notice of intention to deport. The state to which the foreigner must not be deported shall be specified in the notice of intention to deport. If the administrative court establishes the existence of a deportation ban, the validity of the notice of intention to deport shall otherwise remain unaffected.

(4) Once the notice of intention to deport is no longer subject to appeal, the foreigners authority shall, for the purpose of further decisions on deportation or the suspension of deportation, ignore any circumstances which represent an obstacle to deportation to the state specified in the notice of intention to deport and which occurred before the notice of intention to deport was no longer subject to appeal; any other circumstances cited by the foreigner which represent an obstacle to deportation, or to deportation to the specified state, may be ignored. The provisions enabling the foreigner to assert the validity of the circumstances referred to in sentence 1 through a court of law by means of a legal action or the temporary relief procedure pursuant to the Code of Administrative Procedure shall remain unaffected.

(5) It shall not be necessary to set a deadline in cases covered by Section 58 (3), no. 1; the foreigner shall be deported directly from detention or public custody. An impending deportation should be announced at least one week beforehand.
(6) The foreigner shall be issued with a certificate confirming the granting of a period for departure pursuant to subsection 1.

(7) If the foreigners authority has concrete grounds to suspect that the foreigner has been the victim of a criminal offence as specified in Section 25 (4a), sentence 1 or Section 25 (4b), sentence 1, it shall, by derogation from subsection 1, sentence 1, set a deadline for leaving the country which will allow the foreigner sufficient time to decide whether he or she is prepared to testify pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 2, no. 3 or Section 25 (4b), sentence 2, no. 2. A period of at least three months shall be allowed for departure. The foreigners authority may refrain from setting a deadline for leaving the country pursuant to sentence 1 or may annul or reduce the period allowed for departure, if

1. the foreigner’s stay is detrimental to public safety and law and order or other substantial interests of the Federal Republic of Germany or
2. the foreigner has voluntarily re-established contact with the persons pursuant to Section 25 (4a), sentence 2, no. 2 after being duly informed pursuant to sentence 4.

The foreigners authority or a body authorised by it shall inform the foreigner as to the prevailing arrangements, programmes and measures for victims of criminal offences stated in Section 25 (4a), sentence 1.

(8) Prior to deportation, foreigners, who were employed without the entitlement to pursue an economic activity required pursuant to Section 4 (3) shall be notified as to their rights pursuant to Article 6 (2) and Article 13 of Directive 2009/52/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2009 providing for minimum standards on sanctions and measures against employers of illegally staying third-country nationals (Official Journal no. L 168 of 30.6.2009, p. 24).

Section 60
Prohibition of deportation

(1) In application of the Convention of 28 July 1951 relating to the Status of Refugees (Federal Law Gazette 1953 II p. 559), a foreigner may not be deported to a state in which his or her life or liberty is under threat on account of his or her race, religion, nationality, membership of a certain social group or political convictions. This shall also apply to persons who are entitled to asylum and to foreigners who have been incontestably granted refugee status or who enjoy the legal status of foreign refugees on other grounds in the federal territory or who have been granted foreign refugee status outside of the federal territory in accordance with the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees. Where the foreigner cites the ban on deportation pursuant to this subsection, the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees shall establish in an asylum procedure whether the conditions stated in sentence 1 apply and the foreigner is to be granted refugee status, except in cases covered by sentence 2. The decision by the Federal Office shall only be contestable subject to the provisions of the Asylum Act.

(2) Foreigners may not be deported to a state where they face serious harm as referred to in Section 4 (1) of the Asylum Act. Subsection (1), sentences 3 and 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(3) If a foreigner may not be deported to a state in which he or she is wanted for a criminal offence and a danger of imposition or enforcement of the death penalty exists, the provisions on extradition shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(4) If a formal request for extradition or a request for arrest combined with a notification of intent to file a request for extradition has been received from another state, deportation of the foreigner to this state prior to the decision on extradition shall be permissible only with the approval of the authority which is responsible for approving extradition pursuant to Section 74 of the Act on International Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters.

(5) A foreigner may not be deported if deportation is inadmissible under the terms of the Convention of 4 November 1950 for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Federal Law Gazette 1952 II p. 689).
(6) The general danger that a foreigner may face prosecution and punishment in another state and, in the absence of any provisions to the contrary in subsection 2 to 5, the concrete danger of lawful punishment under the legal system of another state shall not preclude deportation.

(7) A foreigner should not be deported to another state in which this foreigner faces a substantial concrete danger to his or her life and limb or liberty. A substantial concrete danger on health reasons shall only exist in the case of life-threatening or serious illness which would significantly worsen upon the deportation being carried out. It is not necessary for medical care in the destination state to be comparable to medical care in the Federal Republic of Germany. Sufficient medical care shall generally also exist where this is guaranteed only in parts of the state of destination. Dangers pursuant to sentence 1 to which the population or the segment of the population to which the foreigner belongs are generally exposed shall receive due consideration in decisions pursuant to Section 60a (1), sentence 1.

(8) Subsection 1 shall not apply if, for serious reasons, the foreigner is to be regarded as a threat to the security of the Federal Republic of Germany or constitutes a threat to the general public because he or she has been finally sentenced to a prison term of at least three years for a crime or a particularly serious offence. The same shall apply if the foreigner meets the conditions stipulated in Section 3 (2) of the Asylum Act. Application of subsection 1 may be waived if the foreigner represents a danger to the general public because he or she has been incontestably sentenced to a prison term or a term of youth custody of at least one year for one or more intentionally committed offences against life, physical integrity, sexual self-determination or property or for resisting enforcement officers if the criminal offence was committed using violence, using a threat of danger to life or limb, or with guile.

(9) In the cases covered by subsection 8, a foreigner who has filed an application for asylum may, by way of derogation from the provisions of the Asylum Act, be served notice of intention to deport and duly deported. Subsections 2 through 7 shall remain unaffected.

(10) If a foreigner to whom the conditions stipulated in subsection 1 apply is to be deported, notice of intention to deport must be served and a reasonable period must be allowed for departure. Those states to which the foreigner must not be deported shall be specified in the notice of intention to deport.

(11) (repealed)

Section 60a
Temporary suspension of deportation (Duldung)

(1) For reasons of international law or on humanitarian grounds or to safeguard the political interests of the Federal Republic of Germany, the supreme Land authority may order the deportation of foreigners from specific states or of categories of foreigners defined by any other means to be suspended in general or with regard to deportation to specific states for a maximum of three months. Section 23 (1) shall apply to a period in excess of six months.

(2) The deportation of a foreigner shall be suspended for as long as deportation is impossible in fact or in law and no temporary residence permit is granted. The deportation of a foreigner shall also be suspended if the public prosecutor’s office or the criminal court considers his or her temporary presence in the federal territory to be appropriate in connection with criminal proceedings relating to a criminal offence, because it would be more difficult to investigate the facts of the case without his or her information. A foreigner may be granted a temporary suspension of deportation if his or her continued presence in the federal territory is necessary on urgent humanitarian or personal grounds or due to substantial public interests. Suspension of deportation on urgent personal grounds within the meaning of sentence 3 is to be granted if the foreigner begins or has begun a vocational qualification in a state-recognised or similarly regulated occupation which requires formal training in Germany, the conditions of subsection 6 are not met and no concrete measures to terminate the foreigner’s residence are imminent. In the cases referred to in sentence 4, the suspension of deportation shall be granted for the duration of the vocational training specified in the training contract. Suspension of deportation pursuant to sentence 4 shall not be granted and suspension of deportation granted in accordance with sentence 4 shall expire if the foreigner has been convicted of an intentional offence committed in the federal territory, whereby no account shall generally be taken of fines of a total of up to 50 daily rates or of up to 90 daily rates in the case of criminal offences which can, under the Residence Act or the Asylum Act, only be committed by foreigners. If the foreigner does not undertake or discontinues the training, the training enterprise shall be obliged to notify this immediately in writing to the competent foreigners authority, generally within one week. The notification shall include the facts to the notified and the time point at which they arose, as well as the names, first names and the nationality of the foreigner. The suspension of deportation granted pursuant to sentence 4 shall expire if the foreigner no longer undertakes or discontinues the training. If the training relationship is terminated at an earlier date or it is discontinued, the foreigner shall be granted suspension of deportation for six months on one occasion for the purposes of seeking another training place in order to begin vocational training in accordance with sentence 4. Suspension of deportation granted in accordance with sentence 4 shall be extended by six months for the purposes of seeking employment which is commensurate with the acquired professional qualification if, after successfully completing the vocational training for which the suspension of deportation was granted, the foreigner is not kept on in the training enterprise; the suspension of deportation granted to enable the foreigner to look for employment may not be extended for this purpose. Section 60a shall otherwise remain unaffected.

(2a) The deportation of a foreigner shall be suspended for one week where his or her removal or deportation has failed, custody pending deportation is not ordered and the Federal Republic of Germany is obliged to readmit the foreigner by virtue of a legal provision, in particular Article 6 (1) of Council Directive 2003/110/EC of 25 November 2003 on assistance in cases of transit for the purposes of removal by air (Official EU Journal no. L 321, p. 26). Suspension pursuant to sentence 1 shall not be extendible. Entry of the foreigner into the federal territory shall be permitted.

(2b) For as long as a foreigner who holds a temporary residence permit pursuant to Section 25a (1) is a minor, the deportation of his or her parents or of one parent possessing the sole right of care and custody as well as of those minor children who live as a family unit with the parents or the parent possessing sole right of care and custody shall be suspended.

(2c) It shall be assumed that the deportation is not precluded on health grounds. The foreigner must substantiate an illness which might impede the deportation by submitting a qualified medical certificate. This medical certificate should in particular document the factual circumstances on the basis of which the professional assessment was made, the method of establishing the facts, the specialist medical assessment of the disease pattern (diagnosis), the severity of the illness and the consequences which will, based on the medical assessment, presumably result from the situation which arose on account of the illness.

(2d) The foreigner shall be obliged to immediately submit the medical certificate referred to in subsection 2c to the competent authority. If the foreigner breaches this obligation to immediately submit such a medical certificate, the competent authority shall be permitted not to take account of the foreigner’s submissions regarding his or her illness, unless the foreigner was prevented, through no fault of his or her own, from obtaining such a certificate or there is other factual evidence for the existence of a life-threatening or serious illness which would significantly worsen on account of the deportation. If the foreigner submits a certificate and the authority thereupon orders a medical examination, the authority shall be entitled not to give consideration to the illness as submitted if the foreigner does not comply with the order without sufficient reason. The foreigner shall be informed of the obligations and of the legal consequences of any breach of these obligations pursuant to this subsection.

(3) Suspension of deportation shall not affect the foreigner’s obligation to leave the federal territory.

(4) The foreigner is to be issued with a certificate confirming the suspension of deportation.
(5) The suspension of deportation shall lapse when the foreigner leaves the federal territory. The suspension shall be revoked when the circumstances preventing deportation cease to apply. The foreigner shall be deported without delay when the suspension lapses, without any renewed notice of intention to deport specifying a deadline, unless the suspension is renewed. If deportation has been suspended for more than one year, prior notice of at least one month shall be served in case of intended deportation by way of revocation; such notice shall be repeated, if the suspension has been renewed for more than one year.

(6) A foreigner whose deportation has been suspended may not be permitted to pursue an economic activity if

1. he or she has entered the country to obtain benefits under the Act on Benefits for Asylum Applicants,
2. measures to terminate his or her stay cannot be carried out for reasons which are attributable to him or her or
3. he or she is a national of a safe country of origin pursuant to Section 29a of the Asylum Act and an asylum application which he or she filed after 31 August 2015 has been rejected.

Foreigners shall in particular be responsible for reasons in accordance with sentence 1 no. 2 if they themselves brought about the obstacle to deportation by their own deceit concerning their identity or nationality or by furnishing false particulars.

Section 61
Geographic restrictions; residence restriction, departure facilities

(1) The stay of a foreigner who is enforceably required to leave the federal territory shall be restricted in geographic terms to the territory of the Land concerned. The geographic restriction pursuant to sentence 1 may be waived if the foreigner is entitled to take up employment without screening pursuant to Section 39 (2), sentence 1, no. 1 or if it is necessary for the purposes of school attendance, of industrial basic and advanced training or of studying at a state or state-recognised university or a comparable educational establishment. The same shall apply if this serves to preserve the family unit.

(1a) In cases covered by Section 60a (2a), residence shall be restricted to the administrative district of the most recently responsible foreigners authority. The foreigner must proceed to such location without delay after entering the federal territory. Where such an authority is not ascertainable, Section 15a shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(1b) A geographic restriction in accordance with subsections 1 and 1a shall expire if the foreigner has been resident in the federal territory for three months without interruption either on account of holding a temporary residence or permanent settlement permit or by virtue of his or her deportation having been suspended or having permission to remain pending the asylum decision.

(1c) Notwithstanding subsections 1 to 1b, a geographic restriction of the stay of a foreigner who is enforceably required to leave the federal territory may be ordered if

1. the foreigner has been incontestably convicted of a criminal offence, with the exception of those offences which can only be committed by foreigners,
2. facts justify the conclusion that the foreigner has violated the provisions of the Narcotics Act or
3. concrete measures to terminate the stay are imminent against the foreigner.

(1d) A foreigner who is enforceably required to leave the federal territory and whose subsistence is not ensured shall be obliged to take up his or her habitual residence at a specific place (residence restriction). In the absence of the foreigners authority ordering any other measure, this shall be the place of residence at which the foreigner was residing when the decision to temporarily suspend deportation was taken. The foreigners authority may amend the residence restriction ex officio or upon the application of the foreigner; account shall be taken of the household community of family members or of other humanitarian grounds of comparable importance. The foreigner may temporarily leave the place determined in the residence restriction without obtaining permission.

(1e) Further conditions and requirements may be imposed.

(2) The Länder may establish departure facilities for foreigners who are enforceably required to leave the federal territory. At such departure facilities, the willingness to leave the federal territory voluntarily should be promoted through support and counselling and accessibility for authorities and courts and implementation of the departure procedure should be ensured.

Section 62

Custody awaiting deportation

(1) Custody awaiting deportation shall not be permissible if the purpose of the custody can be achieved by other, less severe means which are also sufficient. The detention shall be limited to the shortest possible duration. Minors and families with minors may be taken into custody awaiting deportation only in exceptional cases and only for as long as is reasonable taking into account the well-being of the child.

(2) A foreigner shall be placed in custody by judicial order to enable the preparation of deportation, if a decision on deportation cannot be reached immediately and deportation would be much more difficult or impossible without such detention (custody to prepare deportation). The duration of custody to prepare deportation should not exceed six weeks. In case of expulsion, no new judicial order shall be required for the continuation of custody up to expiry of the ordered term of custody.

(3) A foreigner shall be placed in custody by judicial order for the purpose of safeguarding deportation (custody to secure deportation) if

1. the foreigner is enforceably required to leave the federal territory on account of his or her having entered the territory unlawfully,

1a. a deportation order has been issued pursuant to Section 58a but is not immediately enforceable,

2. the period allowed for departure has expired and the foreigner has changed his or her place of residence without notifying the foreigners authority of an address at which he or she can be reached,

3. he or she has failed to appear at the location stipulated by the foreigners authority on a date fixed for deportation, for reasons for which he or she is responsible,

4. he or she has evaded deportation by any other means or

5. there are, in an individual case, reasons deriving from evidence as defined in Section 2 (14) and thus a well-founded suspicion that he or she intends to evade deportation by absconding (risk of absconding).

By way of exception, the order for custody to secure deportation pursuant to sentence 1, no. 1 may be waived if the foreigner credibly asserts that he or she does not intend to evade deportation. Custody to secure deportation shall not be permissible if it is established that it will not be possible to carry out deportation within the next three months for reasons beyond the foreigner’s control.

(4) Custody to secure deportation may be ordered for up to six months. In cases in which the foreigner hinders his or her deportation, it may be extended by a maximum of twelve months. A period of custody to prepare deportation shall count towards the overall duration of custody to secure deportation.

(4a) Where deportation has failed, the order shall remain unaffected up until the expiry of the period allowed for deportation insofar as the conditions for the detention order remain unchanged.
(5) The authority responsible for the detention application may detain a foreigner without a prior judicial order and place such foreigner in temporary custody where

1. there is a strong suspicion that the conditions pursuant to subsection 3, sentence 1 apply,
2. it is not possible to obtain the judicial decision on the order for custody to secure deportation beforehand and
3. there is a well-founded suspicion that the foreigner intends to evade the order for custody to secure deportation.

The foreigner shall be brought before the court without delay for a decision on the order for custody to secure deportation.

Section 62a
Enforcement of custody awaiting deportation

(1) As a general principle, custody awaiting deportation shall be enforced in specialised detention facilities. If there are no specialised detention facilities in the federal territory, custody awaiting deportation may be enforced in other custodial institutions; in such cases the persons in detention awaiting deportation shall be accommodated separately from prisoners serving criminal sentences. If several members of a family are detained, they shall be accommodated separately from other detainees awaiting deportation. They shall be guaranteed adequate privacy.

(2) Detainees awaiting deportation shall be permitted to establish contact with legal representatives, family members, the competent consular authorities and the relevant aid and support organisations.

(3) In the case of minors in detention awaiting deportation, the needs of persons of their age shall be taken into account in accordance with the provisions of Article 17 of Directive 2008/115/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2008 on common standards and procedures in member states for returning illegally staying third-country nationals (Official Journal no. (4) Upon application, staff of relevant support and assistance organisations should be permitted to visit detainees awaiting deportation.

(5) Detainees awaiting deportation shall be informed about their rights and obligations and the rules applied in the facility.

Section 62b
Custody to secure departure

(1) Notwithstanding the conditions applicable to custody to secure deportation under Section 62 (3), a foreigner may be placed in custody for no more than four days by judicial order for the purpose of ensuring that the deportation can be carried if

1. the period allowed for departure has expired, unless the foreigner was prevented through no fault of his or her own from leaving or the period allowed for departure has been exceeded by an insignificant amount of time and
2. the foreigner has displayed behaviour which leads one to expect that he or she will make the deportation more difficult or impossible by continually violating his or her statutory obligation to cooperate or he or she has deceived the authorities regarding his or her identity or nationality (custody to secure departure).

The ordering of custody to secure departure shall be waived if the foreigner substantiates or it is obvious that he or she does not intend to evade deportation. Custody to secure departure shall not be permissible if it has been established that the deportation cannot be implemented within the period stipulated in the order referred to in sentence 1.
(2) The custody to secure departure shall be enforced in the transit area of an airport or in accommodation from which the foreigner’s subsequent departure is possible.

(3) Section 62 (1) and (4a) and Section 62a shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Chapter 6

Section 63
Obligations of transport carriers
(1) A transport carrier may only transport foreigners into the federal territory if they are in possession of a required passport and a required residence title.
(2) The Federal Ministry of the Interior or a body designated by the Federal Ministry of the Interior may, in consultation with the Federal Ministry of Transport and Digital Infrastructure, prohibit a transport carrier from transporting foreigners into the federal territory in contravention of subsection 1 and threaten a fine in case of violation. Any objections or legal actions shall have no suspensory effect; this shall also apply with regard to the imposition of a fine.
(3) The fine against the transport carrier shall be no less than 1,000 euros and no more than 5,000 euros for each foreigner whom he transports in contravention of a ruling pursuant to subsection 2. The fine may be fixed and enforced by the Federal Ministry of the Interior or a body designated by the said ministry.
(4) The Federal Ministry of the Interior or a body designated by the Federal Ministry of the Interior may agree arrangements for implementation of the obligation specified in subsection 1 with transport carriers.

Section 64
Return transport obligation on the part of transport carriers
(1) If a foreigner is refused entry, the carrier who transported him or her to the border shall be required to remove him or her from the federal territory without delay.
(2) The obligation pursuant to subsection 1 shall apply for a period of three years with regard to foreigners who are transported into the federal territory without a required passport, passport substitute or a required residence title and who are not refused entry because they cite political persecution, persecution within the meaning of Section 3 (1) of the Asylum Act or the risk of suffering serious harm within the meaning of Section 4 (1) of the Asylum Act, or the circumstances referred to in Section 60 (2), (3), (5) or (7). The obligation shall expire if the foreigner is granted a residence title under the terms of this act.
(3) On request from the authorities charged with policing cross-border traffic, the carrier shall be required to transport the foreigner to the state which issued the travel document or from which he or she was transported, or to another state in which his or her admission is ensured.

Section 65
Obligations of airport operators
The operator of a commercial airport shall be obliged to provide suitable accommodation on the airport premises for foreigners who are not in possession of a required passport or a required visa until the decision on admission is enforced by the border police.

Section 66
Parties liable for costs; security
(1) Costs arising in connection with the enforcement of a geographic restriction, refusal of entry, removal or deportation are to be borne by the foreigner.
(2) In addition to the foreigner, parties who have provided the foreigners authority or the diplomatic mission abroad with an undertaking that they will bear the costs of the foreigner’s departure shall also be liable for the costs specified in subsection 1.
(3) In the cases covered by Section 64 (1) and (2), the transport carrier shall, in addition to the foreigner, be liable for the costs pertaining to return transportation of the foreigner and for the costs which arise from the time of the foreigner’s arrival at the border crossing point to enforcement of the decision on admission. A carrier who culpably contravenes a ruling pursuant to Section 63 (2) shall, in addition to the foreigner, be liable for any other costs arising from refused entry in cases covered by Section 64 (1) or from deportation in cases covered by Section 64 (2).

(4) The following shall be liable for the costs of deportation or removal,

1. anyone who has employed a foreigner who was not permitted to pursue the economic activity under the provisions of this Act,

2. a contractor for whom an employer has performed services as a direct subcontractor and the contractor was aware or should have been aware, if he or she had exercised due diligence, that the employer hired a foreigner as an employee to perform the service who was not permitted to pursue the economic activity under the provisions of this Act,

3. a prime contractor or intermediate contractor without a direct contractual relationship to the employer who is aware of the employment of a foreigner who was not permitted to pursue the economic activity under the provisions of this Act,

The persons listed in sentence 1, nos. 1 to 4 shall be liable as joint and several debtors within the meaning of Section 421 of the Civil Code.

(4a) Liability pursuant to subsection 4, no. 1 shall be waived if the employer has fulfilled his or her obligations under Section 4 (3), sentences 4 and 5 and his or her notification obligation pursuant to Section 28a of Book Four of the Social Code in conjunction with Sections 6, 7 and 13 of the Data Collection and Transfer Ordinance or pursuant to Section 18 of the Posted Workers Act, unless he or she was aware that the foreigner’s residence title or the certificate confirming permission pending the asylum decision or confirming suspension of deportation was forged.

(5) The party liable for costs may be required to furnish security. The order for security to be furnished by the foreigner or the party liable for costs pursuant to subsection 4, sentences 1 and 2 may be enforced by the authority which has issued the order without a prior writ of execution and without allowing a period for payment, if recovery of the costs would otherwise be at risk. By way of security for the costs relating to the foreigner’s departure from the federal territory, return air tickets and other travel vouchers in the possession of a foreigner who is to be refused entry, removed, expelled or deported or who is permitted to enter and stay in the federal territory solely for the purpose of filing an application for asylum may be confiscated.

Section 67

(3) The costs specified in subsections 1 and 2 shall be charged by the competent authority pursuant to Section 71 by means of a payment order in the amount of the actually incurred costs. The general principles for the calculation of public-sector personnel costs shall apply with regard to calculation of the personnel costs.

Section 68
Liability for living expenses

(1) Anyone who has provided the foreigners authority or a diplomatic mission abroad with a declaration of commitment to bear a foreigner’s living expenses shall be required for a period of five years to reimburse all public funds which are expended to cover the foreigner’s living expenses, including the provision of living space, medical care in case of illness and any required nursing care, and including any such expenditure which is based on a legal entitlement of the foreigner. Expenses which are based on the payment of contributions shall not require reimbursement. The period referred to in sentence 1 shall begin to run upon the foreigner’s entry which was enabled by means of the declaration of commitment. The declaration of commitment shall not expire before the expiry of the period of five years from the foreigner’s entry upon a residence title being granted pursuant to Part 5 of Chapter 2 or upon recognition being given pursuant to Section 3 or Section 4 of the Asylum Act.

(2) The declaration of commitment pursuant to subsection 1, sentence 1 must be furnished in writing. It shall be enforceable in accordance with the Administrative Enforcement Act. The public body which has expended the public funds shall be entitled to the reimbursement.

(3) The diplomatic mission abroad shall notify the foreigners authority without delay of a declaration of commitment pursuant to subsection 1, sentence 1.

(4) On obtaining knowledge of the expenditure of public funds to be reimbursed pursuant to subsection 1, the foreigners authority shall notify forthwith the public body which is entitled to the reimbursement as to the declaration of commitment pursuant to subsection 1, sentence 1, and shall furnish said body with all the information necessary for the purposes of asserting and enforcing the reimbursement claim. The recipient may only use the data for the purposes of reimbursement of the public funds expended for the foreigner and the refusal of further payments.

Section 68a
Transitional provision regarding declarations of commitment

Section 68 (1), sentence 1 to 3, shall also apply to declarations of commitment made before 6 August 2016, though with the proviso that a period of three years shall take the place of the period of five years. If the period referred to in sentence 1 has already expired on 6 August 2016, the commitment to reimburse public funds shall end upon the expiry of 31 August 2016.

Section 69
Fees
(1) Fees and expenses shall be charged for official acts performed under this Act and for statutory instruments issued in enforcement of this Act. Sentence 1 shall not apply to official acts by the Federal Employment Agency pursuant to Sections 39 to 42. Section 287 of Book Three of the Social Code shall remain unaffected.

(2) The Federal Government shall, with the approval of the Bundesrat, determine by statutory instrument the cases which are subject to a fee, the scales of fees, and exemptions and reduced fees, particularly in cases of need. The Administrative Costs Act in the version applicable until 14 August 2013 shall apply insofar as the present Act does not contain any divergent provisions.

(3) The fees which are fixed in the statutory instrument must not exceed the following maximum rates:

1. for issuance of a temporary residence permit: 140 euros,
   1a. for issuance of an EU Blue Card: 140 euros,

2. for issuance of a permanent settlement permit: 260 euros,
   2a. for issuance of an EU long-term residence permit: 260 euros,

6. for other official acts: 30 euros,

7. for official acts performed for the benefit of minors: half the fee set for the official act concerned,

8. for the issuance of a new document pursuant to Section 78 (1) which has become necessary due to a change in the information pursuant to Section 78 (1), sentence 3, or due to the expiry of the technical period of validity for the use of the card, the loss of the document or the loss of the technical functionality of the document: 60 euros.

(4) A surcharge of no more than 25 euros may be imposed to issue a national visa and a passport substitute at the border. A surcharge of no more than 30 euros may be imposed for an official act undertaken outside of normal office hours on request from the applicant. Such charges may also be imposed for official acts performed for a national whose home country imposes fees in excess of those stipulated in subsection 2 on Germans for equivalent official acts. Sentences 2 and 3 shall not apply to the issuance or extension of a Schengen visa. In setting surcharges, the maximum rates stipulated in subsection 3 may be exceeded.

(5) The statutory instrument pursuant to subsection 2 may provide for a processing fee to be charged for applications for official acts which are subject to fees. The processing fee to apply for a permanent settlement permit or an EU long-term residence permit must not exceed half the fee charged to issue the respective permit. This fee shall be offset against the fee for the official act. The fee shall not be refunded if the application is withdrawn and/or the official act which is applied for is refused.

(6) The statutory instrument pursuant to subsection 2 may provide for fees to be charged to file an objection; the following maximum rates shall apply to such fees:

If the objection is successful, the fee shall be deducted from the fee for the official act to be performed and the remainder shall be refunded.

(2) In addition to the cases covered by Section 20 (3) of the Administrative Costs Act in the version applicable until 14 August 2013, the limitation period for claims pursuant to Sections 66 and 69 shall also be interrupted for as long as the party liable for costs is not resident in the federal territory or for as long as his or her residence in the federal territory cannot be ascertained because he or she has failed to meet the statutory registration or notification obligation.

7. procuring return travel documents for foreigners by way of official assistance,
8. issuing notes and certificates for which provision is made in legislation of the European Union confirming the date and place of entry via the external border of a member state which applies the Schengen acquis in full; this shall not preclude the competence of the foreigners authorities of other bodies designated by the Länder.

(1) In the cases covered by Section 98 (2a) and (3), no. 1, the administrative authorities within the meaning of Section 36 (1), no. 1 of the Administrative Offences Act shall be the customs administration authorities. These shall cooperate with the authorities stated in Section 2 (2) of the Act to Combat Clandestine Employment in prosecuting offences and imposing punishments.
(2) The customs administration authorities shall notify the Central Trade and Industry Register as to incontestable orders imposing administrative fines pursuant to Section 98 (2a) and (3), no. 1 which are to be entered in the register. This shall apply only to fines in excess of 200 euros.

necessary in prosecuting administrative offences pursuant to Section 98 (2a) and (3), no. 1, except where it is apparent to the body furnishing such information that the legitimate interests of the data subject or other parties involved in the proceedings in the exclusion of such information prevail. Due consideration is to be accorded to how well substantiated the findings to be communicated are.

Section 72
Consultation requirements
(1) Permission to enter the federal territory (Section 11 (8)) may only be granted with the consent of the foreigners authority which is competent for the intended place of residence. The authority which has expelled, removed or deported the foreigner is generally to be consulted.

(2) The foreigners authority shall decide whether deportation to a specific state is prohibited pursuant to Section 60 (5) or (7) and whether a residence title is to be refused pursuant to Section 25 (3), sentence 2, nos. 1 to 4 only after consulting the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees.

(3) Geographic restrictions, requirements and conditions, time limits pursuant to Section 11 (2), sentence 1, orders pursuant to Section 47 and other measures against a foreigner who is not in possession of a required residence title may only be amended or lifted by a different authority in consultation with the authority which ordered the measures. Sentence 1 shall not apply if the foreigner's residence is restricted to the region for which the other foreigners authority is competent in accordance with the provisions of the Asylum Act.

(4) A foreigner against whom legal proceedings are instituted by a public authority or preliminary investigations are instituted under criminal law may only be expelled or deported in consultation with the competent public prosecutor's office. A foreigner who qualifies as requiring protection within the meaning of the Act to Harmonise Protection for Witnesses may only be expelled or deported in consultation with the Office for the Protection of Witnesses. The consent of the public prosecutor's office pursuant to sentence 1 shall not be required if there is only minimal interest in the prosecution. This shall be the case where public charges were preferred or preliminary investigations instituted for a criminal offence under Section 95 of this Act or under Section 9 of the Act on the General Freedom of Movement of EU Citizens and accompanying offences under the Criminal Code if the injustice done is minimal. Thus, accompanying offences whose injustice was minimal shall be criminal offences under Section 113 (1), Sections 123, 185, 223, 242, 263 (1), (2) and (4), Sections 265a, 267 (1) and (2), Section 271 (1), (2) and (4) and Sections 273, 274, 281, 303 of the Criminal Code, unless these criminal provisions are violated several times on account of various acts or an application for prosecution has been filed.

(5) Section 45 of Book Eight of the Social Code shall not apply to departure facilities and facilities which serve as temporary accommodation for foreigners who are granted a temporary residence permit for reasons of international law or on humanitarian or political grounds or whose deportation is suspended.

(6) The competent public prosecutor's office for the criminal proceedings referred to in Section 25 (4a) or (4b) or the criminal court concerned with such proceedings shall be consulted prior to reaching a decision on the issuance, extension or revocation of a residence title pursuant to Section 25 (4a) or (4b) and prior to setting, annulling or reducing a deadline for leaving the country pursuant to Section 59 (7), except in cases covered by Section 87 (5), no. 1. Where the competent public prosecutor's office is not yet known to the foreigners authority, it shall consult the police authority responsible for the place of residence prior to reaching a decision on setting, annulling or reducing a deadline for leaving the country pursuant to Section 59 (7).

(7) The foreigners authority may also consult the Federal Employment Agency to establish whether or not the requirements of Sections 17a, 18, 18b, 19 and 19a are met in cases where its approval is not necessary.
Section 72a

Security check of visa application data

(1) Data collected by a German diplomatic mission abroad in the course of the visa procedure on the person applying for a visa, the inviting party, persons guaranteeing that the foreigner’s subsistence will be ensured by way of a declaration of commitment or by other means, or on other reference persons in Germany shall be transmitted to the Federal Office of Administration for a security check. The same shall apply to data pursuant to sentence 1 which the diplomatic mission abroad of another Schengen state responsible under Article 8 para. 2 of Regulation (EC) no. 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 establishing a Community Code on Visas (Visa Code) (Official Journal no. L 243 of 15.9.2009, p. 1) has transmitted to a German diplomatic mission abroad for a decision on a visa application. Transmission pursuant to sentence 1 or sentence 2 shall not be effected where the data is transmitted pursuant to Section 73 (1) sentence 1.

(2) The data referred to in subsection 1, sentence 1 and 2, shall be checked in a special organisational unit at the Federal Office of Administration in an automated procedure against data stored in the file referred to in Section1 (1) of the Act on Setting up a Counter-Terrorism Database (Counter-Terrorism Database) regarding persons who justify the assumption that they

1. are members or supporters of a terrorist organisation pursuant to Section 129a of the Criminal Code acting at an international level or of a terrorist organisation pursuant to Section 129a in conjunction with Section 129b (1), sentence 1, of the Criminal Code acting in the Federal Republic of Germany or

2. are members of a group which supports such an organisation or wilfully supports such a group in the knowledge of the activities of the group which support terrorism or

3. unlawfully use violence as a means of enforcing international political or religious interests or support or prepare such use of violence or intentionally incite others to use violence by means of their activities, in particular through advocating such use of violence or

4. are in contact with the persons referred to in no. 1 or no. 3 not only fleetingly or by chance and it is expected that they will yield further information which may help in the solving or combating of international terrorism insofar as facts justify the assumption that they are aware of the planning or commission of one of the criminal offences referred to in no. 1 or the use, supporting or preparation of unlawful violence within the meaning of no. 3.

After labelling by the authority which stored the data in the Counter-Terrorism Database, the Federal Criminal Police Office shall transfer the data on persons referred to in sentence 1 to the special organisational unit in the Federal Office of Administration for the check against data referred to in subsection 1, sentences 1 and 2, and they shall be stored there. Suitable technical and organisational measures are to be put in place to prevent unauthorised access to the content of the data sets.

(3) In the case of a hit, in order to ascertain the grounds for refusal pursuant to Section 5 (4) or to investigate other security reservations which speak against the granting of a visa, the data referred to in subsection 1, sentences 1 and 2, shall be transmitted to the authority which stored the data on this person in the Counter-Terrorism Database. This authority shall immediately transmit a note to the competent German diplomatic mission abroad via the Federal Office of Administration if there are grounds to refuse the visa pursuant to Section 5 (4) or there are other security reservations against granting a visa.

(4) The data referred to in subsection 1, sentences 1 and 2, which have been stored with the special organisational unit in the Federal Office of Administration shall be deleted immediately after carrying out the check pursuant to subsection 2, sentence 1; if the check produced a hit, only the visa file reference shall be stored. This shall be deleted as soon as the special organisational unit in the Federal Office of Administration has established that notification pursuant to subsection 3, sentence 2, is not to be made to the German diplomatic mission abroad, otherwise it shall be deleted when the notification has been made.
(5) The authorities referred to in subsection 3, sentence 1, may store and use the data transmitted to them insofar as this is necessary in discharging their statutory duties. Provisions regulating the transmission of data pursuant to other acts shall remain unaffected.
(6) The Federal Office of Administration shall ensure that, in the event of a hit, a written record shall be made of the time of the security check, the particulars which enable the determination of the checked data sets, the result of the check, the forwarding of the data set and the processing of the data set for the purpose of data protection monitoring. The log data shall be secured by means of suitable measures to prevent unauthorised access and shall be destroyed at the end of the calendar year which follows the year of their generation, unless they are needed for a monitoring procedure which has already been launched.
(7) The Federal Office of Administration shall undertake state-of-the-art technical and organisational measures to ensure data protection and data security which shall, in particular, guarantee the confidentiality and integrity of the data stored in the special organisational unit and of the transmitted data.
(8) Responsibility in data protection matters for the existence of the conditions under subsection 2, sentence 1, shall lie with the authority which entered the data in the Counter-Terrorism Database. Responsibility in data protection matters for the security check shall lie with the Federal Office of Administration. The Federal Criminal Police Office shall be responsible in data protection matters for ensuring that the transmitted data reflect the current status of the Counter-Terrorism Database.
(9) The data referred to in subsection 2, sentence 2, shall be corrected if they are corrected in the Counter-Terrorism Database. They shall be deleted if the conditions for their storage pursuant to subsection 2, sentence 1, are no longer met or the data are deleted in the Counter-Terrorism Database. Section 11 (4) of the Act on Setting up a Counter-Terrorism Database shall apply mutatis mutandis to the examination of the continued existence of the conditions permitting storage of the data pursuant to subsection 2, sentence 2.

Other consultation requirements in visa procedures, in public register and asylum procedures and in the issuance of residence titles

(1) Data on the inviting party and on persons guaranteeing that the foreigner’s subsistence will be ensured by way of a declaration of commitment or by other means or on other reference persons in Germany, which is collected in the course of the visa procedure by a German diplomatic mission abroad or by the diplomatic mission abroad of another Schengen state which is responsible for taking receipt of the visa application on the person applying for a visa, may be transferred via the Federal Office of Administration to the Federal Intelligence Service, the Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution, the Military Counter-Intelligence Service, the Federal Criminal Police Office and the Customs Criminological Office for the purpose of ascertaining any grounds for refusal pursuant to Section 5 (4) or in order to investigate any other security reservations. The procedure pursuant to Section 21 of the Act on the Central Register of Foreigners shall remain unaffected. In cases covered by Section 14 (2), the respective authorities charged with policing cross-border traffic may transfer the data collected in the visa application procedure to the authorities stated in sentence 1.
(1a) Data collected for the documentation, establishment and verification of a person’s identity pursuant to Section 16 (1), sentence 1, of the Asylum Act and Section 49 concerning persons within the meaning of Section 2 (1a) of the Act on the Central Register of Foreigners may be transmitted via the Federal Office of Administration to the Federal Intelligence Service, the Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution, the Military Counter-Intelligence Service, the Federal Criminal Police Office and the Customs Criminological
Office for the purpose of ascertaining any grounds for refusing a visa pursuant to Section 3 (2), Section 4 (2) of the Asylum Act, Section 60 (8), sentence 1, and Section 5 (4) or for the purpose of investigating other security reservations. A check against other data sets shall also be permissible at the Federal Office of Administration for these purposes.

(2) Prior to issuing or extending a residence title, temporarily suspending deportation or permitting residence pending the asylum decision, the foreigners authorities may transfer the personal data stored at their facilities on the persons concerned via the Federal Office of Administration to the Federal Intelligence Service, the Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution, the Military Counter-Intelligence Service, the Federal Criminal Police Office, the Customs Criminological Office, the Land Office for the Protection of the Constitution, the Land Office of Criminal Police or the competent police authorities for the purpose of ascertaining any grounds for refusal pursuant to Section 5 (4) or in order to investigate any other security reservations. The Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution may provide technical support for the transfer of data to the Land Offices for the Protection of the Constitution.

(3) The security authorities and intelligence services stated in subsections 1 and 2 shall notify the Federal Office of Administration forthwith as to whether grounds for refusal pursuant to Section 5 (4) or any other security reservations apply; the Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution may provide technical support for the transfer of communications from the Land Offices for the Protection of the Constitution regarding enquiries from the foreigners authorities pursuant to subsection 2. The German diplomatic missions abroad and foreigners authorities shall communicate forthwith to the security authorities and intelligence services which are stated in sentence 1 the length of validity of the residence titles which have been issued or extended; should the authorities stated in sentence 1 obtain knowledge of grounds for refusal pursuant to Section 5 (4) or other security reservations during the period of validity of the residence title, they shall duly notify the competent foreigners authority or the competent diplomatic mission abroad forthwith. The authorities stated in sentence 1 may store and use the data transferred if necessary in discharging their statutory duties. Provisions regulating the transfer of data pursuant to other acts shall remain unaffected.

(3a) The security authorities and intelligence services referred to in subsection 1a shall immediately notify the Federal Office of Administration of any grounds for refusal pursuant to Section 3 (2), Section 4 (2) of the Asylum Act, Section 60 (8), sentence 1, and Section 5 (4) or of other security reservations. The Federal Office of Administration shall promptly make this information available to the authorities responsible for the asylum procedure and for decisions on residence matters. The further transmission of data between the authorities referred to in sentence 1 and the authorities responsible for the asylum procedure and for decisions on residence matters which is required in consequence of the transmission pursuant to subsection 1a and sentences 1 and 2 may be effected via the Federal Office of Administration. The authorities referred to in sentence 1 may store and use the data transmitted to them insofar as this is necessary in discharging their statutory duties.
